ON THE COVER

A native Northwesterner Dennis Erickson (lower left) begins his first season as the fifth head coach of the Seattle Seahawks. Erickson, who was born in Everett, Washington, was hired on January 12, 1995, after a highly-successful 13-year collegiate head coaching career. Included were a pair of national championships in 1989 and 1991 at the University of Miami. Two players Erickson will lean heavily on will be running back Chris Warren (right) and wide receiver Brian Blades (top). Warren led the AFC with a franchise record 1,545 yards rushing and was voted by his teammates as the Seahawks MVP. Blades has set a single-season reception record in each of the last two seasons and has more receptions at this point of his career (102 games) than 1995 Hall of Fame inductee Steve Largent (416-414).

FRONT OFFICE

KEN BEHRING
Owner

Seattle Seahawks owner Ken Behring is a man of foresight and passion.

In 1950, after selling cars as a teenager, he started a car dealership in a muddy lot, using money he'd earned from a newspaper route and using an old chicken coop as an office. Two years later, he acquired a Lincoln-Mercury dealership.

In 1956, opportunity called Behring to then sleepy Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He built a house for his family that sold before it was half-finished. His company developed the entire city of Tamarac, a planned recreational retirement community, where houses initially sold for $9,000, and now are worth close to $150,000, along with 10 other planned communities in South Florida. Foreseeing the state's rapid growth, he launched a modular home company to meet housing demands, founded a bank, and established the Miami International Merchandise Mart, a trade facility. The modular home company built 3,000 homes in 1971, when Behring sold the firm to pursue other interests.

On the advice of friends, Behring left Florida and flew over the Blackhawk Ranch in the Mount Diablo Foothills of Northern California. He bought 5,000 acres to match his vision of the finest planned country club community. Behring donated 2,000 acres to nearby Mount Diablo State Park and turned the rest into Blackhawk, a 2,300-home community that offers residents two 18-hole golf courses, a tennis and swim club, and a 25-acre sports complex. He's also developed Canyon Lakes in California.

Blackhawk is much more than a planned community, it's an ideal setting for a world-class cultural plaza and is home to the Behring Auto Museum, the Behring-Hofmann Educational Institute, The UC-Berkeley Museum, and The Academy of Achievement.

"I believe in achievement," says Behring. "Our country became great because of achievement and I was lucky enough to be born in a country that gave me the opportunity to do what my abilities would allow. Achievement is a matter of having goals and determination, of accepting luck and failure. You just can't underestimate luck. People make their own luck, but you still need a little of God's grace.

"I plan to spend the rest of my life trying to give that back, and that's what's so enjoyable now."

Recognizing that automobiles are "an investment in mankind" and an important aspect of American culture, The Behring Auto Museum showcases the magnificent history of the automobile from turn-of-the-century horseless carriages, through the Jazz era, to classics built between the two world wars, up through the modern era. The museum features video interaction between guests and the designers of the classics. In addition, the W.E. Miller Transportation Research Library is located nearby.

The Educational Institute has been affiliated with the University of California at Berkeley since 1983, and is a non-profit charitable corporation that provides world class cultural resources to the East San Francisco Bay area, while the museum provides a year-round educational resource center that features exhibits ranging from Anthropology and Paleontology, to contemporary furniture design, to art and artists.

Behring serves as president and one of three patrons of The Academy of Achievement, a 32-year-old Southern California organization that is a hall of fame of accomplishment. The academy, which was moved to Blackhawk in 1993, honors a philosophy Behring espouses: It is not what talents and resources people start out with that matters nearly as much as how they develop them. Resolve, passion, and discipline are the best qualities.

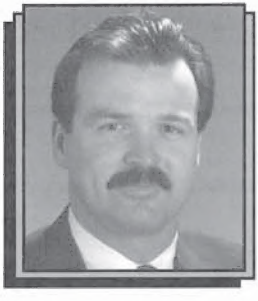
Behring has applied the same foresight and passion to the Seahawks that he has with his other interests. With the NFL in a new era of free agency, he appointed his son, David, team president, to fulfill his goal of having the franchise prepared to meet the new era head-on.

Since purchasing the Seahawks on August 30, 1988, Behring has become active in the Seattle community affairs by serving as Past President of the American Academy of Achievement, as Honorary Chairman of the "Seahawks NFL Man of the Year Night," which has raised almost $200,000 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association from 1991-1995, and by contributing to the PONCHO Auction and the Seattle Art Museum.

DAVID BEHRING
President



David Behring, son of Seahawks majority owner Ken Behring, was named the Seahawks President on January 19, 1993.

Since assuming this position, he's guided the franchise through the myriad of changes that have been part of the NFL. He has spearheaded entry into free agency and salary cap economics and was instrumental in the hiring of Head Coach Dennis Erickson last January. In 1993, NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue appointed him to the Realignment Committee and in 1994 was selected to serve on the influential Finance Committee.

Off-the-field, Behring brought the NFL Experience, the league's interactive theme park, to Seattle, while this past offseason saw a "New Attitude" campaign instituted as well as a new style and type of entertainment to the Kingdome. Another part of this "New Attitude" is the establishment of the Seattle Seahawks Charitable Foundation, which will raise money for children's charities in the Puget Sound area.

An attorney licensed to practice in both California and Florida, David has served the past five years as the Executive Vice President of Blackhawk Corporation, a Northern California land development company.

Born in Wisconsin in 1955, he moved with his family to Florida the following year, and graduated from Pine Crest High School in Fort Lauderdale in 1973. While in high school, he lettered in football, wrestling and track, serving as team captain in all three sports as a senior. Behring was an all-county, all-region and second-team all-state selection in football as a running back and set school and county records for single-season rushing yardage in 1972.

Behring graduated with a degree in History from Princeton University in 1977 and earned his law degree from the University of Miami in 1980. While at Princeton, he played two years of football and rugby, and one year of track and lightweight football.

He moved to Danville, California, in 1980 and started his own home building company, Great Bear Homes, Inc., which was renamed Great Bear Construction in 1984. The company specialized in premium golf course location homes and won the MAME award three times for marketing.

In 1990, his father appointed David as the Executive Vice President of Blackhawk Corporation in which he handled all legal and insurance issues, assisted the Corporation's partners in marketing, land planning, merchant-builder relations, shopping center management, country club management, and country club sales.

Behring has been an active member of the Northern California Building Industry Association (BIA) for over 10 years. In addition to being a Board Director during that period, he also served as President of the Educational COuncil in 1988 and as President of the BIA's Eastern Division in 1993.

Active in numerous community and charitable causes, Behring has co-chaired fund-raising events for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Western Washington, Mt. Diablo Hospital Foundation, the East Bay Make-A-Wish Foundation, the Animal Rescue Foundation, and the Northern California NFL Alumni Association's "Caring for Kids" program. He will also spearhead the newly-created Seahawks Charitable Foundation which will benefit children's charities in the Puget Sound area.

His hobbies include fishing, football, racquetball, skiing, biking, and white-water rafting.

David and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Stephanie Ann (12/19/94), and have residences in both Kirkland, Washington, and Danville, California.

MICKEY LOOMIS

Executive Vice President

Enters into his 13th season and was named to his current position on January 6, 1992. Originally joined the Seahawks staff in October 1983, as the team's Business Manager and was promoted to Vice President/Finance in 1990. A native of Eugene, Oregon, he graduated from Willamette High School in 1974, and played basketball at Northwest Christian College. Loomis earned his undergraduate degree in Accounting from the University of Oregon and also has a Masters Degree in Sports Administration from Wichita State University. Mickey has two children, a son, Alex, and a daughter, Katherine.

COACHING STAFF

DENNIS ERICKSON
Head Coach

SEAHAWKS: Named the fifth head coach in franchise history on January 12, 1995. Erickson follows Jack Patera (1976-82), Mike McCormack (1982), Chuck Knox (1983-91), and Tom Flores (1992-94) as the Seahawks head coach and is the first of the five not to have previous NFL coaching experience. A native of Everett, Washington, Erickson is one of four current NFL coaches to be the head coach of his hometown team. The others are the New York Jets Rich Kotite (Brooklyn, NY), the Pittsburgh Steelers Bill Cowher (Pittsburgh), and the San Francisco 49ers George Seifert (San Francisco).

COLLEGE HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: A proven winner in each of his four college head coaching jobs, Erickson posted a 130-40-1 overall record and won two national championships in 13 seasons as a head coach, enduring only one losing season. In addition, he's captured coach of the year honors in three different conferences, Big Sky, Pac 10, and Big East. Reached 100 career wins in his 137th game, becoming the third-quickest to reach that plateau among Division I head coaches active in 1994 trailing Penn State University's Joe Paterno (122 games) and the University of Nebraska's Tom Osborne (126 games). Spent the past six seasons at the University of Miami compiling an NCAA-best 63-9-0 record (.875) and winning national championships in his first season of 1989 and again in 1991. Posted a 35-2 mark at the Orange Bowl, including being part of an NCAA record 58 straight wins. Became only the second head coach in NCAA history to win a national championship in his first season at the school. The Hurricanes finished the 1989 regular season 10-1, losing only to Florida State, and defeated the University of Alabama in the USF&G Sugar Bowl, 33-25. During the year they knocked off the undefeated defending national champion University of Notre Dame, 27-10. At the end of the year they led the country in total defense (216.5 yards per game), rushing defense (69.1), and scoring defense (9.3 points per game). Erickson was a finalist for national coach of the year honors and was named the All-South Independent Coach of the Year. His 1990 squad finished 10-2 and ranked third in the country following a 46-3 win over the University of Texas in the Mobil Cotton Bowl. In 1991, Miami posted a perfect 12-0 mark capped by a 22-0 win over the University of Nebraska in the Federal Express Orange Bowl, winning a share of the national title with the University of Washington. Winning two national titles in his first three seasons at Miami matched the NCAA record set by the University of Oklahoma's Barry Switzer in 1974 and 1975. In 1992, his squad entered the Sugar Bowl 11-0 with a chance to capture a third national title, but dropped a 34-13 decision to eventual national champion Alabama, who finished 12-0. That squad finished third in the country. After both the 1991 and 1992 seasons he was named Big East Coach of the Year. In 1993 Miami finished 9-3 and was ranked 15th, while in 1994, they were 10-2, ranking sixth in the nation. While at Miami, his teams captured two national championships and entered three additional bowl games in contention for a national title, played in six straight New Year's Day bowl games, and won at least 10 games five times. Erickson coached 14 first-team All-America players, a Heisman Trophy winner (quarterback Gino Torretta in 1991), Outland Trophy winner (defensive tackle Russell Maryland 1990), and Lombardi Award winner, (defensive tackle Warren Sapp in 1994). In addition, Maryland was the first pick in the entire 1991 draft. He started his head coaching career at the University of Idaho in 1982 compiling a 32-15-0 (.681) mark in four seasons, the most wins in school history, and advancing to the NCAA I-AA playoffs his first and last seasons in 1982 and 1985. He was named Big Sky Coach of the Year both seasons and the 1985 team captured the school's first conference title in 14 seasons. In 1986 he moved to the University of Wyoming. He installed his Air Express attack in place of the wishbone and turned around a 3-8 team to one that went 6-6, losing three games by seven or fewer points, and finished second in the nation in passing offense, while breaking all school passing records. He moved to Washington State University in 1987 and after a 3-7-1 first season went 9-3-0 in 1988, taking the Cougars to the Aloha Bowl, their first bowl game since 1981, and only the fourth bowl game in school history. Washington State's 24-22 win over the University of Houston was the first bowl game win by a WSU team in 72 years and gave the Cougars a final national ranking of 16th, the highest in school history. That season also included an upset of number one ranked UCLA in Los Angeles. His quarterback, Timm Rosenbach, led the nation in passing efficiency with a 162.0 rating, and was later a first-round supplemental draft choice of the Arizona Cardinals in 1989.

COLLEGE ASSISTANT COACHING EXPERIENCE: Started his career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Montana State University, in 1969. He spent the next spring as a graduate assistant at Washington State before moving into the high school ranks as the head coach at Billings Central High School in Billings, Montana. In 1971, he returned to Montana State as the offensive backfield coach. In 1974 and 1975, he served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Idaho, before taking the same job at Fresno State University. In 1979, he moved to San Jose State University as their offensive coordinator remaining there until taking the head coaching job at the University of Idaho in 1982.

COLLEGE PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Was a three-year starter at quarterback at Montana State University from 1966 to 1968, twice earned first-team All-Big Sky Conference honors in 1967 and 1968, and was an honorable mention All-America as a senior. He set school records for career total offense (3,945 yards), career passing yards (3,181), passing yards in a single-season (1,819 in 1968), passing yards in a single game (282 versus Montana), while ranking second all-time with 126 points and 21 touchdowns. His 70-yard pass to Ron Bain against Northern Arizona in 1968 was a school record. In addition, he was the holder for future NFL Hall of Fame kicker Jan Stenerud. Graduated with a B.S. in Physical Education.

PERSONAL: Is a native of Everett, Washington, located 30 miles north of Seattle. His father, Robert (Pink) Erickson, was a highly-successful high school coach at Ferndale High School in Ferndale, Washington, and Cascade High School in Everett, and he and his wife, Mary, still live in Everett. Dennis attended Everett High School, lettering in football and basketball and was 2-1 against his father. The current head coaches of the University of Washington, Jim Lambright (1961), and Washington State University, Mike Price (1964), along with Erickson (1965), all attended Everett High School. Dennis and his wife, Marilyn, have two sons, Bryce, who will be a sophomore quarterback at Chaffey Junior College in Rancho Cucamonga, California, and Ryan, a high school junior. Born March 24, 1947, in Everett, Washington.

In 1975, he left the college ranks to become the defensive line coach of the Shreveport Steamer of the World Football League. Tommy and his wife, LaNelle, have two daughters, Melodie and Christie. He was born on December 30, 1940, in El Dorado, Arkansas. His last name is pronounced BRAY-zure.

KINGDOME

The Kingdome, at a cost of $67 million and with an expanded seating capacity of 66,400 for football, is the least expensive domed, air-conditioned stadium of its size in the world. In 1994, an extensive roof and ceiling repair took place after ceiling tiles fell on July 19. Built on a 35.9-acre site in historic Pioneer Square, just south of Seattle's central business district, the walls of the Dome anchor the world's largest self-supporting concrete roof. The first professional football game in the Kingdome, August 1, 1976, between the Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers drew 60,825 fans. The Kingdome is also the home of the American League Seattle Mariners, who started play in 1977. Among other events held in the Kingdome have been the Auto Show, Big Seattle Boat Show, rock concerts, the 1977 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, 1979 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1984, 1989, and 1995 National Collegiate Athletic Association Final Four Basketball Championships, the 1987, 1988, 1991, and 1992 NCAA West Regional Finals, and the 1987 National Basketball Association All-Star Game.

DAVE BROWN
Defensive Coach

SEAHAWKS: Enters into his fourth season as an assistant coach. Originally joined the Seahawks on January 24, 1992, under Tom Flores, and was retained by Dennis Erickson on January 27, 1995.

NFL COACHING EXPERIENCE: Brown enters into his fourth season as an NFL assistant in 1995. He is one of three former Seahawks players to currently serve as NFL assistant coaches along with Fred Hoaglin (1976), now with the New England Patriots, and Sherman Smith (1976-82) with the Houston Oilers.

NFL PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Played 15 seasons as a defensive back with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1975), Seattle Seahawks (1976-86) and Green Bay Packers (1987-89). Missed the 1990 season on injured reserve with Green Bay because of an Achilles tendon injury and retired prior to the 1991 season. Played in 216 of a possible 222 games, starting 203, in his career prior to missing the 1990 season. The six games missed all came in 1981 with a broken leg. Finished his career with 62 interceptions, ranking him tied for fifth in NFL history. Had seven games with two interceptions. Ranks as Seattle's career interception leader with 50. Scored five touchdowns on interception returns, all with the Seahawks. Returned two for touchdowns against the Kansas City Chiefs on November 4, 1984, tying an NFL record. Totaled eight interceptions that season and was voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. Voted the Seahawks defensive captain by his teammates from 1983 through 1986. Also holds Seahawks record for career (643) and single-season (179 in 1984) interception return yardage, and career return touchdowns (5). Third inductee into the Seahawks Ring of Honor in 1992. Originally drafted 26th on the first round by the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers in 1975, and saw action in 13 games as well as playing in Super Bowl X against the Dallas Cowboys. Was acquired by the expansion Seahawks in the 1976 Veteran Allocation Draft on March 30. Played and started 159 games at both free safety (1976) and right cornerback (1977-86) with Seattle before being traded to the Packers on August 26, 1987, for an eleventh-round 1988 choice. Started all 44 games that he played in Green Bay and was voted by his teammates defensive captain in 1988. Led the Packers with 12 interceptions in his three seasons.

COLLEGE PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Named to the University of Michigan's All-Time Team for the Second 50 Years of Wolverine Football in 1983. Three-year starter at safety and played on teams that posted a 30-2-1 record and shared three Big Ten titles. Was a three-time first-team All-Big Ten choice and a consensus first-team All-America as a junior and a unanimous choice as a senior. Played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl, Coaches All-America and College All-Star games after his senior season. Graduated with a degree in Radio and Television.

PERSONAL: Attended Garfield High School in Akron, Ohio. Active with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Pro Athletes Outreach. Is an accomplished racquetball player having finished second in both the 1980 NFL Players Association tournament and the 1987 Washington State Open. Born January 16, 1953, in Akron, Ohio.

TOM CATLIN
Quality Control

SEAHAWKS: Returns for his 36th consecutive season of coaching professional football and his 13th with the Seahawks. Has coached under Chuck Knox (1983-91), Tom Flores (1992-94), and Dennis Erickson with Seattle. Has concentrated on quality control duties the past two seasons after serving as the Seahawks defensive coordinator from 1983-92. Named Sports Illustrated's NFL Coach of the Year for 1992, the first assistant coach ever honored. Also named Pro Football Weekly's Assistant Coach of the Year. Joined Knox's first Seahawks staff on February 8, 1983, as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator, and linebackers coach. Elected to stay on the staff on January 10, 1992, four days after Flores was named head coach. From 1990-92, his defenses twice set new franchise records for fewest yards allowed and were the only unit in the NFL to rank in the top 10 in total defense in each season. In his ten seasons as Seattle's defensive coordinator, the Seahawks led the NFL in both total takeaways (397) and in fumble recoveries (189) and their 208 interceptions rank tied for fourth. In 1984, his second season with the Seahawks, Catlin transformed a defense that had not ranked higher than 13th in a full season in franchise history into the NFL's sixth best unit and one that allowed a record low 282 points. That defense recorded a league high 63 takeaways, the second-highest total in NFL history, including 38 interceptions, the most in the league since 1961. The Seahawks also posted a league high three shutouts, including back-to-back, and held two other teams without a touchdown. In 1984, Seattle also became the first team in NFL history to post a shutout after playing a Monday night game, defeating the Kansas City Chiefs, 45-0, after blanking the Chargers in San Diego, 24-0, in San Diego. The Seahawks returned an NFL record four pass interceptions for touchdowns against the Chiefs. His 1986 unit led the AFC in fewest points allowed. Twice with the Seahawks he successfully switched schemes, first from the 4-3 to the 3-4 in 1983 and from the 3-4 back to the 4-3 in 1990.

NFL COACHING EXPERIENCE: Catlin is the last original American Football League coach still active and his 36 years as an assistant is the most of any NFL assistant after the retirement of Miami Dolphins offensive line coach John Sandusky, who started in 1959. Catlin began his career on Hank Stram's staff with the Dallas Texans in 1960, the AFL's first season, and moved with the franchise to Kansas City in 1963. In 1966, he joined George Allen's staff with the NFL's Los Angeles Rams as defensive backfield coach. In 1969, Allen promoted him to defensive coach. He stayed with the Rams from 1966 through 1977, as he coached under Allen (1966-70), Tommy Prothro (1971-72) and Chuck Knox (1973-77). After the 1977 season, he moved along with Knox to the Buffalo Bills, where he served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He assumed the additional responsibilities of assistant head coach after the 1980 season. With the Bills, he took over a defense that ranked 23rd overall in 1977 and had it rated first overall by 1980. His units finished seventh in 1981 and second in 1982. The Bills also finished first against the pass in 1978 and were second in both 1980 and 1982.

NFL PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Was drafted by the Baltimore Colts on the fourth round on January 22, 1953, but was traded to the Cleveland Browns prior to his rookie season in what still ranks as the biggest player trade in NFL history. Catlin, along with four other players, including former Seahawks President/General Manager and current Carolina Panthers President Mike McCormack, were dealt to the Browns for 10 players, including current Miami Dolphins head coach Don Shula, on March 26, 1953. Catlin played four seasons with the Browns, 1953-54, and 1957-58, and one with the Philadelphia Eagles, 1959. He spent the entire 1955 and 1956 seasons, and all but the last four games of the 1957 season, as a pilot in the United States Air Force. He played in three NFL championship games with the Browns, winning in 1954 as he served as the defensive signal-caller.

COLLEGE COACHING EXPERIENCE: Got his start coaching the Plebes at West Point under head coach Red Blaik in 1957.

COLLEGE PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Lettered three seasons as a center and a linebacker under Bud Wilkinson. Named a first-team All-America center in 1951 and 1952, and three times, 1950-52, was an All-Big Seven Conference choice. Catlin was only the fourth player in Oklahoma history to be named all-conference at least three times. In 1952, he finished tenth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

PERSONAL: Attended Ponca City High School in Ponca City, Oklahoma. Suffered a heart attack in February 1991, and underwent quadruple bypass surgery, but returned in time for mini camp. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Seattle Chapter of the American Heart Association. Tom and his wife, Betty, have two children, Kim and Tom, and two grandsons. Catlin was born September 8, 1931, in Ponca City.

Born September 17, 1952, in Bossier City.

SEAHAWKS HEADQUARTERS

In June, 1986, the Seahawks moved into their new office and training headquarters on a 12-acre site adjacent to Northwest College in Kirkland.

The 37,000 square foot, two-story building is the Seahawks year-round home, containing facilities for training camp as well as off-season and regular season practices.

The downstairs contains a 105-man meeting room, six ten-man meeting rooms, a weight room, two racquetball courts, an enlarged locker room, training room with rehabilitative facilities, and equipment room.

Upstairs houses the administrative offices, coaches offices and meeting rooms, the ticket office, and conference rooms.

Outside, the Seahawks are able to practice on three regulation fields, two of natural grass and one of Omni Turf. The turf field is covered in inclement weather by a 55-foot inflatable bubble, eliminating travel to the Kingdome for practice.

To reach the headquarters from Seattle, take Highway 520 Eastbound and exit at the Kirkland Exit. Go right onto Northup Way (first stop light) and left onto 108th Avenue NE (next stop light). Follow 108th for approximately one mile and turn right onto NE 53rd St. Continue to the top of the hill, passing the player and staff entrance on your left. Turn left at top of the hill into the visitor's parking area.

From Sea-Tac Airport, follow the signs to I-405 North. Exit onto Highway 520 Westbound (Seattle) after 20-25 minutes. Take Highway 520 from I-405 and exit onto 108th Avenue NE. Turn right at the stop light at the end of the exit and proceed up the hill on 108th. Go approximately one mile to NE 53rd Street and turn right. Turn left at top of the hill into the visitor's parking area.

Has nine games with at least two sacks, including games of four versus the New York Jets in 1987 and three versus Cleveland in 1993. 1985: Started 16 games and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Led in sacks with six and was third in tackles with 141. Had sacks in each of the last five games. Totaled four games with at least 10 tackles, including 15 versus Miami, and intercepted his first pass versus Buffalo. Added nine special teams tackles. 1986: Started 16 games and led team in sacks for second straight season with six. Totaled 144 tackles to rank second to Cliff Odom's 151. Had 15 tackles versus San Diego, one of five games in double figures. Intercepted passes at Buffalo and at Houston. 1987: Started all 12 games played by the regulars and was chosen as a starter for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. Led team with 113 tackles, 74 solo tackles, and with a career-high eight sacks. Had four sacks at the New York Jets (11/1) to earn AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. Returned a fumble 28 yards at Miami. Started at Cleveland in the playoffs. 1988: Led team in tackles for the second straight season while starting 16 games. Credited with 126 tackles and a single-season high three interceptions. Had six games with at least 10 tackles. Also led in assisted tackles with 43 and was second in sacks with 3.5. AFC Defensive Player of the Week versus New England with 10 tackles, one interception, and one fumble recovery. 1989: Started 16 games and had 100 tackles to rank fourth. Tied his single-season best with eight sacks, including two each at Cincinnati and at New Orleans. 1990: Played and started 15 games. Missed versus Kansas City with a hamstring injury snapping a streak of 80 straight games played and started. Second in tackles with 117 and had five double figure tackle games to total 27 for his career. 1991: Started 16 games and finished second in tackles with 125. Had four games with at least 10 tackles, including 13, with two sacks, and a forced fumble versus New England. 1992: Started 15 games. Did not play versus New England because of a hamstring injury. Tied for third with 89 tackles. 1993: Started 15 games, 14 at strong linebacker and one at right end. That start, versus San Diego, was the first of his career at a position other than outside linebacker. Was fourth in tackles with 97. Totaled 14 tackles, one off his single game high, versus Buffalo. Had 3.5 sacks, including 3 versus Cleveland, to earn AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

1994: Started the first 15 games at strong safety, missing the Cleveland game because of a hamstring injury suffered versus the Los Angeles Raiders. Totaled 69 tackles on defense, according to unofficial press box statistics, to lead all defensive backs and rank seventh on the team. Had a season-high eight in the second Indianapolis game and totaled seven in two others, including Pittsburgh, where he had an interception. Led the team with three fumble recoveries and tied a team record with two fumble recoveries in the second Kansas City game. The second came with 1:01 left preserving a 10-9 win. Also forced a fumble in that game and earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. Stopped Houston's Todd McNair on a two-point conversion attempt with 2:53 left to seal a 16-14 win. Had a 52-yard interception return for a touchdown at Washington nullified by a penalty.

CAREER: Second of two second-round draft choices in 1990 and has been the full-time starter at strong safety since 1991 after opening the first three games of 1990. Totals 316 tackles, according to unofficial press box statistics, and seven interceptions. His 2.5 sacks against the Philadelphia Eagles in 1992 is a single-game high for a defensive back. Scored the quickest touchdown in franchise history by returning a fumble 14 seconds into the Cleveland game in 1993. 1990: Started 5-of-15 games at strong safety, including the first three. Missed one game because of a knee injury. Had 36 tackles, according to unofficial press box statistics, and added five special teams tackles. 1991: Started 16 games at strong safety. Credited with 64 tackles, two tackles for loss, one sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Collected his first career interception against the New York Jets and also had picks in the second Denver and Los Angeles Rams games. Forced a fumble on a sack at the Los Angeles Raiders. 1992: Started 15 games at strong safety, missing the Miami game with a hip injury suffered at New England. Finished the season with a career-high 65 tackles, according to unofficial press box statistics. Had a single-game high 11, including seven unassisted, against Philadelphia, and nine, all unassisted, against Cincinnati. Two-and-a-half of his tackles against the Eagles were sacks, and also had a sack and a forced fumble at San Diego. Had a career-long 69-yard interception return against Denver. 1993: Started 16 games at strong safety. Established a career high with 74 total tackles, according to unofficial press box statistics. Scored his first career touchdown with a five-yard return of a fumble against Cleveland. Score came on the first play of the game (14 seconds elapsed) and was the quickest score in franchise history. Intercepted two passes, versus New England and Phoenix.

HONORS: 1990, First-team All-Rookie (Pro Football Writers' Association, Pro Football Weekly, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest). 1994, AFC Defensive Player of the Week (vs. Kansas City 11/27).

COLLEGE: Football News first-team All-America in 1989. Three-time first-team All-Southwest Conference choice and four-year letterman. Had 80 tackles and eight interceptions in 1989. Tied for sixth in the country in interceptions. Intercepted four passes and returned two for touchdowns in a 50-7 win against Texas as a senior. Interception and touchdown totals both rank as the second-most in SWC history. Finished his career with 227 tackles, 17 tackles for loss, and 14 interceptions. Also had four sacks. Co-led the team with five interceptions as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Played defensive back and quarterback at Van Vleck High School in Van Vleck, Texas. Also lettered in basketball and track. First-team all-state choice as a senior at defensive back and a second-team choice at quarterback by the Texas State Sportswriters. Threw six touchdown passes in a state playoff game loss against Cuero High School. State high school 110-meter high hurdles champion. Birthdate: July 24, 1965
Birthplace: Ft. Lauderdale, FL
Residence: Plantation, FL

1994: Started 16 games and set a new single-season reception record for the second straight season. Caught 81 passes for a personal best 1,086 yards and four touchdowns, breaking his old mark of 80 catches set in 1993. Topped 1,000 yards for the third time in his career and broke his previous single-season best of 1,063 yards set in 1989. Finished fifth in the AFC in receptions (third among wide receivers) and seventh in yards (sixth amongst receivers). Posted his 14th 100-yard game with 141 on seven receptions in the second Kansas City game. Had two other games with 90 or more yards, including 97 on four catches, with a 45-yarder on the game's fourth play, versus Pittsburgh. Had seven catches, including two for touchdowns, in the first Chiefs game. Season-best eight catches came in the first San Diego game. Led the AFC with 33 receptions on third down. Became only the second player in franchise history to have both a rushing play and a receiving play of at least 40 yards in the same game. Had a 41-yard pass reception and a 40-yard run on a reverse versus Cincinnati. Joins Dan Doornink (46 rush, 44 receiving against the Denver Broncos on January 2, 1983). Is now one of only six players in franchise history to have 40+ yard plays both rushing and receiving in a career. Caught his 400th career pass in the second Indianapolis game and passed 5,000 career yards in the second San Diego game.

CAREER: Was the Seahawks second-round draft choice in 1988, but their first selection overall. Ranks second all-time in receiving yards with 5,560 (Steve Largent leads with 13,089) and is third in receptions with 416 (Largent 819, John L. Williams 471). Is third in receiving touchdowns with 26, and is second with 14 100-yard games. Has more 1,000-yard receiving seasons (3) than anyone, other than Largent (8), in team history. Twice has caught game-winning touchdown passes with less than 1:00 minute left, against San Diego (10/29/89) and versus New England (10/24/93). Also caught the game-tying score with 0:00 left versus Denver (11/30/92). Has 17 rushing attempts for 120 yards. Joined Dan Doornink (1982) in 1994 as the only players in team history to have both a rushing and receiving play of at least 40 yards in the same game. Accomplished the feat against Cincinnati (11/6/94) and also ranks as only one of six players to have two such plays in a career.
1988: Played in 16 games, starting 7-of-the-last-10. Led the Seahawks in receiving yardage (682), the first player other than Steve Largent to do so in franchise history. Also led in touchdowns (8) and was second in receptions (40). Led all NFL rookies in touchdowns, was fifth in receptions, and fourth in yards. Had two 100-yard games, including a team rookie record 145 against New Orleans in his first start. Had 123 yards on six receptions and two touchdowns at the Los Angeles Raiders in a 43-37 win that clinched the AFC West title. Had five receptions for 78 yards in the playoff game at Cincinnati. 1989: Led team in receptions (77) and yards (1,063), was voted team MVP and selected to the Pro Bowl. Finished two catches off the team single-season record. Ranked second in the AFC in receptions and seventh in yards. Set a career-high with 10 receptions against San Diego, including the game-winning score with 0:40 left. Totaled four 100-yard games. 1990: Started 16 games and had 49 receptions for 525 yards and three scores. Had two of the scores against Minnesota. 1991: Started 16 games and led team in receptions (70) and yards (1,003). Posted his second 70+ catch season and second with more than 1,000 yards. Joined Steve Largent as only players in franchise history to have two 1,000-yard seasons. Only Largent (six and eight) has more 70+ catch and 1,000-yard seasons. Tied for seventh in the AFC in receptions and was eighth in yards. Opened the season by posting career highs in receptions (12) and yards (160) at New Orleans and equalled his best with two touchdown receptions. Catches tied for second most in a single game in team history while yardage total was seventh best. Had two other games over 100 yards, 131 at San Diego and 107 at Denver and three with 97, 99, and 99. Caught eight passes at both Kansas City (97 yards) and San Diego (131). 1992: Did not sign until September 2, missing all of training camp and the preseason. Suffered a shoulder injury on his first play against the Cincinnati Bengals in the season opener and missed 10 games on injured reserve before returning to start the last five. Caught a game-tying three-yard touchdown pass on the last play of the game in the first Denver game, his first game back from the injury, a game eventually won by the Seahawks 16-13 in overtime. Posted Seattle's only 100-yard receiving game of the season with six receptions for 103 yards against San Diego in the season finale. The 100-yard game was Seattle's first since he had 131 yards on eight catches at San Diego on November 10, 1991, and was the 11th of his career. Was designated one of two transition players after the season. 1993: Played 16 games, starting 14. Broke the existing franchise record for receptions with 80 receptions, topping Steve Largent's 1985 record of 79. Finished tied for fourth in the AFC in receptions and was sixth in yards with 945. Caught 10 passes for 132 yards in a 31-14 win over San Diego. Had 134 yards on 7 receptions in a 16-6 win over Pittsburgh. Caught the game-winning touchdown pass with 25 seconds left in a 10-9 win over New England. Totaled at least five receptions in 10-of-16 games. Had nine receptions against the Patriots and seven at Denver and in the first Kansas City game. Caught five in the second Chiefs game to break Largent's record.

1994: Earned his fourth straight trip to the Pro Bowl and third consecutive as a starter after starting 16 games at right tackle. First team All-NFL pick by Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, and College and Pro Football Newsweekly for the third straight season. Led all defensive linemen with 70 tackles, according to unofficial press box statistics. Added 8.5 tackles for loss and four sacks. Had nine tackles in the second Kansas City game and seven in three other games. Forced and recovered a fumble on the first play at Houston sparking a 16-14 win. Added two sacks and another tackle for loss versus the Oilers. Only missed four defensive plays in the last 12 games and none in the last seven.

CAREER: Continues to rank as one of the NFL's best interior lineman. Has appeared in the Pro Bowl in each of the last four seasons, including the last three as a starter. Had his best season in 1992, earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors, while playing for a 2-14 team. Credited with 92 tackles, 14 sacks and 28 tackles for loss. Ranks fifth all-time in quarterbacks sacks with 32.0, while collecting 360 tackles. Only three defensive linemen in team history have recorded more tackles, Joe Nash 737 in 194 games, Jacob Green 718 in 178 games, and Jeff Bryant 689 in 175 games. Kennedy has accumulated his total in just 80 games. Has added 68.0 tackles for loss. Joined Seahawks as their first-round draft choice in 1990. Was the third player chosen in the first round after quarterback Jeff George (Indianapolis Colts) and running back Blair Thomas (New York Jets). Seattle acquired the pick on draft day from the New England Patriots along with a second-round choice (LB Terry Wooden) in exchange for the Seahawks two first-round selections (#8 and #10) and a fourth-round 1991 draft choice. Seattle's additional first-round draft choice came from the Indianapolis Colts in a 1988 trade for linebacker Fredd Young.
1990: Played in 16 games and started two at right tackle. Missed all of training camp and the preseason before signing a contract. Credited with 48 tackles, six tackles for loss, one sack, a fumble recovery, and a forced fumble, according to unofficial press box statistics. Posted a season-high 10 tackles, including a sack, at Miami. Six of his tackles against the Dolphins were for no gain or a loss. 1991: Started 16 games at right defensive tackle and played in his first Pro Bowl. Finished third in tackles with 73, according to unofficial press box statistics, and was second in sacks with 6.5. Led all defensive linemen in tackles and sacks. The Sporting News AFC Defensive Player of the Week against the New York Jets after recording eight tackles, two sacks, and two passes defensed. Also had two sacks against the Indianapolis Colts. His 12 tackles in the second Kansas City Chiefs game were a career high. 1992: Consensus choice as NFL Defensive Player of the Year. One of six finalists for the Miller Lite NFL Player of the Year. NFL Alumni Association and NFL Players Association Defensive Lineman of the Year. Consensus first-team All-NFL pick, and AFC starter in the Pro Bowl. Kansas City 101 Club AFC Defensive Lineman of the Year. Voted the Marcus Nalley Trophy by his teammates as the team's Most Valuable Player. Became only the third player in history to win the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award from a team with a losing record, joining Lawrence Taylor of the 1982 New York Giants (4-5) and Reggie White of the 1987 Philadelphia Eagles (7-8). Was the second Seahawks player to win the award along with safety Kenny Easley (1984). Led the team in sacks, 14.0, yards lost, 89, a team record 28 tackles for loss, total yards lost, 122.5, and forced fumbles, four, according to unofficial press box statistics. Ranked tied for fifth in the AFC in sacks and led all interior linemen. His 14.0 sacks were the third-most in a single season in Seattle history. Finished second on the team in tackles with a career-best 92, according to unofficial press box statistics. Also recovered a fumble and batted down two passes. AFC Defensive Player of the Week in a 10-6 win at New England after registering seven tackles, including three sacks, and four-and-half tackles for losses of 32 yards, and two forced fumbles. Had a season-high five tackles for loss, including two sacks, against the Raiders, and had three tackles for loss, including two sacks, versus the Philadelphia Eagles. Had at least one tackle for loss in 14-of-16 games and at least two in 9-of-16. 1993: Started 16 games at right tackle and was a consensus first team All-NFL pick for the second straight season and earned his third straight trip to the Pro Bowl and second straight as a starter. Ended the year with 77 tackles, including 60 solo, 13.5 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery, according to unofficial press box statistics, despite constant double and triple teaming. Led all defensive linemen in tackles, finishing fourth overall, paced team in tackles for loss, and was second in sacks. Had 10 tackles in back-to-back games, at Houston and versus Cleveland. Recorded two sacks and a fumble recovery at New England and also had two tackles for loss at San Diego. Combined with Antonio Edwards to give the Seahawks two rookie ends in the nickel for the last seven games. Finished the season with eight tackles, 4.0 sacks, 4.0 tackles for loss, and two forced fumbles on defense, according to unofficial press box statistics. Had a sack at San Diego in his first NFL game. Also used as a wedge-buster on kickoff coverage and was credited with two tackles. Was Seattle's seventh-round draft choice.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman and starter. Second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference as a senior. ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week on October 19. Established single-season bests with 80 total tackles, 25 tackles for loss, and 16 sacks as a senior. Led the ACC in tackles for loss and tied for first in sacks. Finished his career with 199 total tackles, 47 tackles for loss, and 31 quarterback sacks. School's all-time leader in both quarterback sacks for a career and single game (4). Had 74 tackles in 1991, with 16 tackles for loss and 10 sacks. Ranked third in the conference in sacks and fifth in tackles for loss. Had 11 tackles, including four for loss versus Appalachian State as a junior. Majored in Communications.

PERSONAL: Attended George Marshall High School in Vienna, Virginia. Had 21 sacks as a junior, but only played three games as a senior after breaking his arm.

IN A RUSH

The Seahawks are one of only three NFL teams to increase their rushing yards per game in each of the last three seasons. Seattle averaged 99.8 yards in 1992, 125.9 in 1993, and 130.3 in 1994, to join the Detroit Lions and Indianapolis Colts. Seattle led the AFC in rushing for the first time in franchise history in 1993 and finished second in both the AFC and NFL to the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1994.

3 RICK MIRER QB

Height: 6-2 Weight: 211
College: Notre Dame
NFL Experience: 3rd Year
How Acquired: Draft (1st round 1993)
1994 Games Played/Started: 13/13
Career Games Played/Started: 29/29
Birthdate: March 19, 1970
Birthplace: Goshen, IN Residence: Woodinville, WA

1994: Started the first 13 games before breaking the thumb on his non-throwing left hand against Indianapolis. Had successful surgery the day after the injury and missed the next two games on the inactive list before being placed on injured reserve for the Cleveland game. Finished the season completing 195-of-381 attempts for 2,151 yards, 11 touchdowns and seven interceptions. Tied Kansas City's Joe Montana for the NFL lead and set a club record with a 1.8 interception avoidance percentage. Did not throw an interception until the third game of the season and later had a streak of 132 straight passes without an interception. Threw a personal best three touchdowns at Los Angeles against the Raiders in a 38-9 win. All three scores came in a 10:03 span of the third and fourth quarters. Completed 19-of-25 passes for 242 yards in that game. Orchestrated two fourth quarter comeback wins, 22-21 over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and 10-9 versus the Kansas City Chiefs on back-to-back weekends. Led a 12-play, 77-yard drive by passing for 28 yards and running for 13 against the Buccaneers, with Mack Strong scoring the winning touchdown with 42 seconds left. Put 10 fourth quarter points on the board against the Chiefs, including a 10-play, 66-yard drive to a touchdown and a short drive to the winning field goal with 1:42 left. Now has three fourth quarter comeback wins in his career. Season-best 244 passing yards came in the first Denver game. Threw two touchdown passes against both the Chiefs and the Buccaneers. Finished the season as the second-leading rusher with 153 yards on 34 carries.

CAREER: Was the Seahawks first-round draft choice in 1993 and the second player chosen overall. Second equals the highest the Seahawks have ever drafted in their history. In 1976, the Seahawks chose defensive tackle Steve Niehaus, also of Notre Dame. Had started his first 29 games before being sidelined with three games left in the 1994 season because of fractured thumb on his left (non-throwing) hand against the Indianapolis Colts. Ranks third in franchise history in attempts (867), completions (469), yards (4,984), touchdowns (23), and interceptions (24). Leads in lowest percentage of interceptions (2.77), is second in completions percentage (54.1), and has a quarterback rating of 68.4. Has led three fourth quarter comeback wins in his career, New England in 1993 and Tampa Bay and Kansas City in 1994. Has added 496 rushing yards on 102 carries with three scores. 1993: Started all 16 games and was a consensus All-Rookie choice and NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year as chosen by Football Digest and AFC Rookie of the Year as chosen by the NFL Players Association and UPI. Set NFL rookie records for attempts (486), completions (274), and yards (2,833), breaking the old marks set in 1976 by former Seahawks quarterback Jim Zorn. Zorn set all his marks in 14 games, while Mirer broke the completions mark in 13 and the attempts and yards in 14. Also set franchise rookie records for touchdown passes (12), completion percentage (56.4%) and quarterback rating (67.0). Became only the third rookie quarterback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to start all his team's games joining New England's Jim Plunkett (1971) and Buffalo's Joe Ferguson (1973). Missed only 28 of 1,019 offensive plays, 23 in the second half at New England after being poked in the eye, the last two in the first half in the second San Diego game, and three at the end of the game at Houston. Only the sixth rookie quarterback in league history to improve his team's win total from the previous season by four. Of those six, only the Los Angeles Rams Bob Waterfield (1945), Plunkett, Ferguson, and Mirer started all games. Finished the season completing 274-of-486 passes (56.4%) for 2,833 yards, with 12 touchdowns and 17 interceptions. Completed 20-of-27 passes (74.1%) in his first game. Threw for 282 yards and one score in a 31-14 win over San Diego earning AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Twice staged fourth quarter comebacks. Engineered a 14-play, 54-yard drive and threw the game-winning touchdown pass with 25 seconds left in a 10-9 win in the second New England game. Led a 13-play, 90-yard drive culminating in his one-yard run for a 27-24 lead over Phoenix in a game lost 30-27 in overtime. Finished the season by throwing a touchdown pass in each of his last four games, including two at Kansas City. Rushed 68 times for 343 yards, and three scores, setting a franchise quarterback rushing record, breaking the old of 290 yards set by Jim Zorn in 1978. Led all AFC quarterbacks in rushing yards (343) and was second in the NFL to San Francisco's Steve Young (407).

HONORS: 1993, NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year (Football Digest); AFC Rookie of the Year (USA Today/NFL Players Association, United Press International); First-Team All-Rookie (Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association, Football Digest, Football News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly); AFC Offensive Player of the Week 5 vs. San Diego 10/3 (National Football League, Pro Football Writers Association).

COLLEGE: Three-year starter and team captain as a senior. Second-team All-America selection by Football News. Ranks first in school history with 41 touchdown passes and is second with 377 completions, 698 attempts, and 5,997 yards. Compiled a 29-7-1 record as a starter and led Irish to three bowl games, Orange, Sugar, and Cotton, winning the last two. Added 694 yards rushing and 17 scores. Threw for 1,876 yards with 15 touchdowns and six interceptions, while completing 120-of-234 passes in 1992. Threw a single-season record 18 touchdown passes in 1991, while passing for a personal best 2,117 yards, the third-highest total in school history. Named team Co-Most Valuable Player along with running back Jerome Bettis (now with the St. Louis Rams). Two-time Chevrolet Most Valuable Player Award winner as a sophomore, versus Michigan in his first-ever start and against Michigan State. Threw the game-winning touchdown against the Wolverines with 1:40 left and rallied the Irish to 13 fourth quarter points versus the Spartans. Played in the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl after graduation. Majored in Marketing.

PERSONAL: Two-time All-State pick and Gatorade Circle of Champions Indiana Player of the Year as a senior at Goshen High School in Goshen, Indiana. Atlanta Touchdown Club's Bobby Dodd winner as the nation's high school back of the year. Set state prep records with 44 touchdowns and 6,586 yards. Broke Jeff George's (now with the Atlanta Falcons) single season passing record with 3,973 yards as a senior. Added 30 touchdowns and 10 interceptions in leading team to 14-0 record and state title as a senior. Threw for 395 yards in state title game. His 3,973 yards ranks second in national high school history to Jimmy Jones' (Tallahassee, Florida) 4,098 in 1975. Recipient of the Academy of Achievement Award as the top high school football player in the country in 1989, an award presented to him ironically by Seahawks owner Ken Behring. His father, Ken, was the head football coach at Goshen High but resigned before Rick played a varsity game. Rick and his wife, Stephanie, were married on June 11, 1994.

1994: Started 15-of-16 games at left defensive tackle, not starting at Denver as Seahawks opened in a nickel package. Credited with 48 tackles, six tackles for loss, and two sacks, according to unofficial press box statistics. Had six tackles in three different games and posted sacks in the first San Diego and Kansas City contests. Only two other defensive linemen active at the end of the season, the Green Bay Packers Steve McMichael (1980) and the New Orleans Saints Frank Warren (1981), predate Nash's (1982) entry into the league.

CAREER: Has played more games (194) than any other player in team history except Steve Largent (200). Ranks fifth in games started with 158. Has missed only one game in his career due to injury, that at San Diego in 1988, although he did dress. Played the last part of the 1990 season with a broken bone in his leg. Has played in 109 consecutive games from 1988-94, second in team history to Eugene Robinson's 120 straight. Has spent his entire career with the Seahawks after signing as an undrafted free agent on May 14, 1982. Franchise's all-time leader with 10 blocked kicks, eight field goals and two PATs. Is third in tackles with 737, third in sacks with 46.5, trailing Jacob Green (116.0) and Jeff Bryant (63.0), according to unofficial press box statistics. Tallied two touchdowns, in 1984 on an end zone fumble recovery versus the Chicago Bears and on a 13-yard interception return at San Diego in 1993. Height: 5-10 Weight: 188

College: Wisconsin
NFL Experience: 9th Year
How Acquired: UFA (Buffalo 1994)
1994 Games Played/Started: 0/0
Career Games Played/Started: 108/107
Birthdate: August 25, 1965
Birthplace: Columbus, GA
Residence: Roswell, GA

1994: Missed the entire season on injured reserve after suffering a knee injury in the offseason after signing as an unrestricted free agent on February 24. Had not missed a game due to injury in his career prior to the season.

CAREER: Pro Bowl selection after both the 1992 and 1993 seasons, the latter as a starter. Spent his entire career with the Buffalo Bills after being their second-round draft choice in 1987 prior to joining the Seahawks. Was the first pick on the second round, a choice that was acquired from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in exchange for Buffalo's second and fourth-round 1987 choices. Became an immediate starter with Buffalo, playing 108 games, starting 107, and added starts in all 16 postseason games. Started 97 consecutive regular season games until a shoulder injury limited him to a reserve role versus the New York Jets in 1993. Credited with 360 tackles, 26 interceptions, 109 passes defensed, nine forced fumbles, and eight fumble recoveries. Has three games with two interceptions. Twice AFC Defensive Player of the Week in 1991 and 1993. Holds Buffalo record with five postseason interceptions. 1987: Started all 12 games played by the regulars. Was the youngest starting defensive player in the NFL and second-youngest starter overall. Only New England's Bruce Armstrong (born 9/7/65) was younger. One of three rookies to start on the Buffalo defense. Finished the season with 42 tackles and had a key fumble recovery at the Buffalo six preserving a 21-14 win over Denver. 1988: Started 16 games and intercepted his first career pass in the season opener. Finished the season with 44 tackles. Started both playoff games and was credited with nine tackles. 1989: Started 16 games and posted a career high five interceptions. Had two of them against Miami in the opener. Tied for team lead with three forced fumbles. Had 46 tackles. Started at Cleveland in the playoffs and had two tackles. 1990: Started 16 regular season games and three in the postseason. Led team in fumble recoveries with three and had one interception. Returned a fumble he'd forced 49 yards against the Los Angeles Raiders. Blocked a field goal versus Denver. Picked off two passes in the playoffs, versus Miami and the Raiders. 1991: Started 16 games and three playoff contests. First-team All-AFC by UPI. Had five interceptions and a single-season best 76 tackles. Returned an interception for a touchdown against Pittsburgh. AFC Defensive Player of the Week versus the Chicago Bears after contributing a pass defense and a fourth down tackle on a goal line stand. 1992: Started 16 games and was named to first Pro Bowl. Had five interceptions and 63 tackles. Fourth quarter pick at San Francisco led to winning touchdown. Blocked a field goal versus Atlanta. Started his 100th consecutive game at New Orleans. Started all four postseason games and contributed the interception in overtime that set up the game-winning field goal in a 41-38 win against Houston. 1993: Started 15-of-16 games, earning his second straight trip to the Pro Bowl, and first as a starter. Played, but did not start, against the New York Jets because of a shoulder injury, breaking a streak of 97 straight starts. Tied for the NFL lead in interceptions with Seattle's Eugene Robinson with a career-high nine, one off the Buffalo record. It's the most interceptions by a cornerback since Atlanta's Scott Case had 10 in 1988. Picked off two passes against Washington, his third career game with two picks, and never went more than two games without at least one. AFC Defensive Player of the Week at Miami after intercepting a pass and returning a fumble 25 yards for a touchdown. Started all three postseason games and intercepted his Buffalo record fifth playoff pass against the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl XXVIII in Atlanta, returning it 41 yards to set up a score.

HONORS: 1987, First-team All-Rookie (UPI, Pro Football Weekly, Pro Football Writers of America, Football Digest). 1991, First-team All-AFC (UPI); AFC Defensive Player of Week 5 (vs. Chicago). 1992, AFC Pro Bowl squad. 1993, AFC Pro Bowl starter; Second-team All-NFL (AP, Football Digest); First-team All-AFC (UPI, Football News); AFC Defensive Player of Week 16 (at Miami).

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman and two-year starter. First-team All-Big Ten by Associated Press and UPI. School's Defensive Player of the Year as a senior after intercepting six passes and recording 68 tackles. Theft total tied for the conference lead. Had three of his interceptions against the University of Hawaii, one of which he returned 73 yards for a touchdown. Finished his career with 153 total tackles, eight interceptions, and four blocked kicks. Averaged 10.0 yards on 36 punt returns and 24.6 on 25 kickoffs. Also competed in track in the 4x100 meter relay and long jump. Second at the Big Ten meet in the long jump as a senior. Competed in the NCAA track championships. Majored in Child and Family Studies.

PERSONAL: Four-year letterman in football, basketball, and track at Carver High School in Columbus, Georgia. All-state choice at both quarterback and punter as a senior. Voted team Most Valuable Player in both football and basketball as a senior.

1994: Voted Defensive Captain by teammates for the third straight season. Started the first 14 games at free safety before tearing his Achilles tendon at Houston. Missed the last two games on injured reserve snapping his club record streak of 120 straight games played. Co-holds the mark with 92 straight starts with Jacob Green (1980-87). Had not missed a game due to injury in his career prior to 1994. Finished the season with 80 tackles, according to unofficial press box statistics, ranking third overall. Added a team co-leading three interceptions, 2.5 tackles for loss, one sack, and eight passes defensed. Ranks as the team's all-time leading tackler with 878, according to unofficial press box statistics, passing Keith Butler in game four versus the Pittsburgh Steelers. Had eight tackles in four games and at least five in 11-of-14. One of his eight tackles versus the Steelers was on a fourth-and-goal from the one in the third quarter with Seattle leading 20-6. Also had an interception versus the Steelers. His end zone interception sealed a 22-21 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and his third came in the end zone in the second Indianapolis game.

CAREER: Has been the starter at free safety since his second season of 1986. Holds the team record with 120 straight games played and co-holds the mark with 92 consecutive starts with Jacob Green (1980-87). Will attempt to rebound from Achilles tendon surgery after being injured in the 14th game of 1994. Is a two-time Pro Bowl selection (1992 and 1993) who originally signed with the Seahawks as a free agent cornerback on June 4, 1985. Has picked off more passes (27) in the decade of the 90's than any other NFL player. Co-led the league with nine interceptions in 1993 and was tied for third in 1992 with seven. Is tied for second in team history with 41 interceptions, nine off the record held by current assistant coach Dave Brown. Has led or co-led the Seahawks in interceptions in each of the last six seasons. His 878 tackles is a club record and he has never finished lower than third in tackles since becoming a starter in 1986. Led in tackles in 1988, 1989, 1992, and 1993, and was second in 1986, 1990, 1991, and third in 1987 and 1994. Is the only defensive back in team history to have back-to-back 100-tackle seasons (1988 and 1989) and is tied for the second-most 100-tackle seasons with three, one off the team record. 1985: Signed originally as a cornerback and was moved to safety in training camp. Played 16 games and had two interceptions, returning the second one 47 yards. Credited with 28 tackles, according to unofficial press box statistics, including nine against Denver in the finale. 1986: Started 16 games and ranked second in tackles with 99. Recovered a fumble with seven seconds left at New England to preserve a six-point win. Totaled takeaways in four straight games (one interception, three fumble recoveries). Led the team with three fumble recoveries. 1987: Started 12 games and the Wild Card game at Houston. Was third in tackles with 69, according to unofficial press box statistics. Had two interceptions at Chicago and also posted a career-high 11 tackles. Returned a blocked punt 15 yards against Green Bay for his first career touchdown. Upped his single-game high in tackles to 15 at Houston in the playoffs. 1988: Voted by his teammates as a defensive co-captain. Started 16 regular season and one postseason game. Led team in tackles with a career-high 115. Became the first defensive back to lead in tackles since Dave Brown in 1976. Only John Harris with 117 in 1980, had more tackles among defensive backs in team history. Added 11 tackles at Cincinnati in the playoffs. 1989: Played 16 games, starting the last 14. Led the team for the second straight season in tackles with 102, the first defensive back to lead consecutive seasons. Also led in interceptions with a single-season best five. 1990: Started 16 games and co-led the team in interceptions with three and in fumble recoveries with four. Finished second in tackles with 82, according to unofficial press box statistics. Recovered a fumble and had an interception at New England. Intercepted a pair of key passes in two wins. Had a fourth quarter theft at San Diego and returned it 30 yards setting up the game-tying touchdown. In the second Denver game, his late third quarter interception and 39-yard return set up the game-winning touchdown. Ended the year by returning a fumble 16 yards for a touchdown breaking a 10-10 tie in a 30-10 win over Detroit. 1991: Started 16 games at free safety and was voted a first-team All-NFL performer by Sports Illustrated and named team Most Valuable Player in a vote by his teammates. Led team with five interceptions, including at least one in four straight games, to tie the team record. Finished second in tackles with 91, according to unofficial press box statistics, and had at least five in 11 games. 1992: Started 16 games at free safety and earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Also was voted defensive captain by teammates. Finished first on the team in tackles with 94, according to unofficial press box statistics, and in interceptions with a career-high seven. Tied for second in the AFC in interceptions and was third in the NFL. The seven interceptions was the most since 1985. Tied Kenny Easley's 1984 team record with three pass interceptions at Pittsburgh on December 6. Credited with 13 tackles against Philadelphia. Made his 100th career start at Los Angeles against the Raiders on November 15. 1993: Defensive Captain, team Most Valuable Player (voted by teammates), first-team All-NFL choice and voted as a reserve for the AFC Pro Bowl squad for the second consecutive season. Started 16 games at free safety for the fourth straight season. Co-led the NFL with nine interceptions (along with Buffalo's Nate Odomes) and added one in the Pro Bowl. Only John Harris (1981) and Kenny Easley (1984), each of whom had 10, have had more in one season in team history. Also led the NFL in total takeaways with 11, including two fumble recoveries. Had two interceptions versus Cleveland and posted another stretch with one interception in three straight games. Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors versus the Browns as he collected 11 tackles (8 solo), two interceptions, two passes defensed, two forced fumbles, and one fumble recovery. Led team in tackles with 111, four off his 1988 career high. Had four games in double figures in tackles, including 12 against New England, 11 versus Cleveland, and 10 at Houston and against Phoenix. Set single-season highs with five tackles for loss and two sacks. Also co-led in forced fumbles with three.

1994: Played 12 games, starting two, at left end. Played as a reserve the first two games after suffering a sprained knee at Indianapolis in the preseason opener. Started games 3 and 4 before moving to a pass rushing role in the nickel. Missed games 8-11 with a groin injury suffered in the first Kansas City game. Led the team for the second straight year in sacks with 4.5. Had two of his total in the second Los Angeles Raiders game. Credited with 12 tackles and 4.5 tackles for loss, according to unofficial press box statistics.

CAREER: Seahawks sixth-round 1991 draft choice who alternated his time between the practice and active roster in 1991. Used experience gained in the World League in 1992 to make the roster and has served as the starter at left end in nickel situations the last two seasons. Led team in sacks in both 1993 (8.0) and 1994 (4.5), despite playing in 21-of-32 games. 1991: Waived on August 26 and signed to the practice squad two days later. Spent the first 12 games on the practice squad before being activated on November 30. Active for the next two games, but did not play, before missing the last two games on injured reserve with a back injury. 1992: Missed the first four games on injured reserve after suffering a training camp ankle injury and was activated prior to the first San Diego Chargers game. Made his first career start, at left end, versus the Washington Redskins, and had three tackles. Recorded his first sack versus the Philadelphia Eagles. Finished the season with 10 tackles, according to unofficial press box statistics. World League: Loaned to the Sacramento Surge for the 1992 season. Started all 10 regular season games at left end and finished second in the league in sacks with 10 and was a first-team All-League selection. Sacramento won the North American West with an 8-2 record and advanced to World Bowl II in Montreal, Canada, where they defeated the Orlando Thunder, 21-17, to capture the World League championship. Contributed a key forced fumble and recovery to help seal the victory. Was credited with 54 tackles, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in the regular season. 1993: Played nine games, starting one, in a season that ended after breaking his right thumb at Houston, ironically, the only game he started. Ranked third in the AFC in sacks with 8.0 at the time of his injury, a total that still led the team. Had 3.0 of his sack total, along with a forced fumble, in the second San Diego game. Finished the season with 12 tackles, according to unofficial press box statistics. 1994: AFC's Pro Bowl punter. First-team All-NFL as selected by Sports Illustrated and NFL Films and first-team All-AFC as chosen by UPI, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association. First Seahawks punter so honored. Punted 91 times for a 42.9 gross average and 36.7 net. Ranked second in the NFL in net and was third in gross. Also second with a team record 33 punts inside the 20. Had five-of-eight punts inside the 20 at Washington to tie own team record, and two other games, back-to-back, with four. Set single-game team record with a 47.7 net average versus Tampa Bay. Single-game gross high was 49.5 at Indianapolis. Used as the holder on place kicks and scored a two-point conversion against the Buccaneers. Had a two-point pass attempt fall incomplete at Cleveland.

CAREER: Signed as a free agent with the San Diego Chargers in 1988 and the Washington Redskins in 1989, but was released prior to the regular season in each case. Has seen regular season action with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1989 and Buffalo Bills in 1990, in addition to the Seahawks. Stands alone at the top of the Seahawks punting records after signing as a free agent on October 9, 1991. Ranks first in career average (43.72), while holding the top four single season averages (44.52 in 1993, 44.07 in 1992, 42.98 in 1991, and 42.91 in 1994), and the top nine single game averages. Possesses the top four season net averages (38.74 in 1992, 37.27 in 1993, and 36.90, in 1991, and 36.69 in 1994). Ranks first and second in single season punts inside the 20 with 33 in 1994 and 29 in 1992. Also holds the one game mark with five twice. Has three-of-the-four longest punts in franchise history. Has had only one block in 398 punts. 1989: Signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles for the last two regular season games and averaged 36.6 on seven punts. Played in the wild card playoff game and averaged 38.4 on eight punts. 1990: Signed with the Buffalo Bills in March as a Plan B Free Agent. Was waived by Buffalo on August 20 and re-signed on September 19. Punted in 14 games, averaging 39.8 yards, with 12 inside the 20 yardline. Played in all three postseason games, including Super Bowl XXV against the New York Giants. Averaged 39.4 yards on nine punts and had one tackle against the Giants. 1991: Signed as a free agent by Seattle on October 9 after being waived by the Bills on August 20. Third of three punters used during the season. Established new team single-season records with a 43.0 gross average and a 36.9 net average. Ranked second in the AFC in net and was fifth in gross. Averaged 45.8 on five punts, with a career-best long of 60, against the Los Angeles Raiders in his first game. 1992: Set single-season team records for punts (108), gross punting average (44.1), net punting average (38.7), and punts inside the 20 (29). Set a single-game mark with a 52.5 yard average on six punts at San Diego on October 4. Tied the record for most punts in a game with 11 versus the Philadelphia Eagles (overtime) and for most punts inside the 20 with five versus Denver on November 30. The 108 punts led the NFL and equalled the third-highest single-season effort in NFL history. Finished first in the NFL in In20's. Was second in net average and third in gross average in the AFC. His 65-yard punt at Dallas on October 11 was the longest of his career and one of 10 punts of at least 55 yards. 1993: Set a new franchise punting average record for the second time in three seasons. Averaged 44.5 yards on 90 punts to better his 1992 average of 44.1 and his 1991 mark of 43.0. Ranked third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in gross average. Was second in the conference and sixth in the league in net average at 37.3, second in team history only to his 38.7 in 1992. Had 21 punts downed inside the 20, tying for fourth in the conference and 10th in the league. Set a single-game mark with 12 punts in the second Denver game. Included were two punts of over 60 yards, the first Seattle punter to have two 60-plus yard punts in the same game, and four punts inside the 20. Averaged 38.9 yards on his first 28 punts of the season (five games) and 47.1 on his last 62. Topped 50.0 yards per punt (minimum 4 punts) in three games, topped by a 51.4 mark on five punts at Houston. Had a season-long 64-yard punt in the first Kansas City game. AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the second San Diego game, after averaging 37.0 on 7 punts with a 35.6 net and 3 inside the 20. Suffered the first blocked punt of his career and the first versus the Seahawks since 1989 at Kansas City.

HONORS: 1992, Second-Team All-NFL (College and Pro Football Newsweekly); Desenex Golden Foot Award. 1993, AFC Special Teams Player of Week 5 (vs. San Diego). 1994, AFC Pro Bowl squad; First-Team All-NFL (Sports Illustrated, NFL Films); First-Team All-AFC (UPI, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association); Second-Team All-NFL (Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, Football News).

COLLEGE: Two-year letterman at Florida State after lettering two seasons, 1983-84, at the University of Miami. Part of the Hurricanes 1983 National Championship squad. Averaged 38.9 yards on 37 punts as a senior. Had a 41.6 average on 38 punts at Miami in 1984, the fourth-best mark in school history.

BOOTIN' TUTEN

Punter Rick Tuten set a team record with 33 punts inside the opponents' 20 yardline in 1994. The Pro Bowler leads the NFL over the past three seasons with 289 punts and a 37.8 net average. His 43.9 gross average is second and his 83 In20's is third.

PERSONAL: Attended Forest High School in Ocala, Florida. Rick and his wife, Nancy (4/20/90), have a daughter, Kinley (6/1/92), and a son, Chase (1/21/94).

1994: AFC's leading rusher with a team record 1,545 yards on 333 carries. Pro Bowl selection and team Most Valuable Player. Finished second in the NFL in rushing to Detroit's Barry Sanders (1,883) and was also runner-up to Sanders in total yards from scrimmage (1,868 to 2,166) and average per carry (4.6 to 5.7). Accounted for 40.2 percent of the Seahawks offense, the league's third-highest figure (Sanders 43.3% and Indianapolis' Marshall Faulk 40.9). Third in the conference in both total touchdowns (11) and rushing touchdowns (9). Only the second Seattle player to lead conference in rushing (Curt Warner 1983 and 1986). Took the lead with three games left and won the title by 195 yards over San Diego's Natrone Means. Broke Warner's 1986 marks for both yards (1,481) and total yards from scrimmage (1,822). Tied another mark with seven 100-yard rushing games. Became the first player in franchise history to have 1,000 yards after 12 games and broke Warner's mark in 15 games. Now the first player in franchise history to have three straight 1,000-yard seasons and the 28th in league history. Is one of only three players whose teams posted losing records in that time. Equalled two other marks with back-to-back 100-yard games and by scoring a touchdown in seven straight games. Tied another with a rushing touchdown in six straight. Posted the AFC's top single-game effort with a personal-best 185 yards on 30 carries at Houston, despite playing with fractured ribs. Yardage and attempt totals were the third highest in a single-game in franchise history. Had 184 yards on 28 carries through three quarters before re-injuring the ribs. Opened the season with 100 yards on 22 carries with two touchdowns at Washington, the first opening game 100-yard effort since 1986.

Scored two touchdowns the next week at the Los Angeles Raiders, one rushing and his first receiving. AFC Offensive Player of the Week for 126-yard, one-touchdown effort versus Pittsburgh. Had 117, including a 41-yard run at Kansas City; 122 and a score at Denver; 116, including 114 in the first half, versus Tampa Bay; and 122 against the Los Angeles Raiders. Became the first player in franchise history to have a rushing, receiving, punt return and kickoff return of at least 50 yards after a 51-yard reception at Denver. Reception was part of a single-game best 200 yards from scrimmage. Finished the season with a career-best 41 receptions for 323 yards and two touchdowns receiving. Had 33 catches for 242 yards prior to the season. Capped off his season with 127 yards on 14 carries in the Pro Bowl. Effort broke the game record of 112 yards by O.J Simpson in 1973, but was also surpassed by teammate Marshall Faulk, who had 180 yards. Warren broke the record first, but held it for one play.

CAREER: Drafted by Seattle on the fourth round in 1990 and was used primarily as a punt and kickoff returner his first two seasons before becoming the starting running back. Has posted three straight 1,000-yard rushing seasons, becoming only the 28th player in NFL history to have three-in-a-row and the first in franchise history. Has moved steadily up the rushing charts finishing fifth in the AFC in 1992, third in 1993, and first in 1994. Had a franchise record 1,545 yards in 1994 and set another mark with 1,868 total yards from scrimmage. Ranks third in team history in rushing yards (3,658) and attempts (846). Is second in average gain (4.3), 100-yard games (13), and third in touchdowns (20). His seven 100-yard games in 1994 tied a team record. Has four-of-the-top-seven single game rushing totals in team history and is fourth in combined net yards (6,834) and third in attempts (1,043). Is second in both combined kick returns (180) and return yards (2,613) to Bobby Joe Edmonds (190-3,238). Ranks first in punt returns (94) and fair catches (60) and is one of only four players in team history to return a punt for a touchdown with a 59-yard return against Indianapolis in 1991. Is third in average (8.71), first in single season fair catches (25 in 1992) and co-holds the record for one game (5). Ranks second in kickoff returns (86) and yards (1,794) again to Edmonds (101-2,228). 1990: Played 16 games as a reserve running back and kick returner. Only player in the NFL to rank in the top five in both punt returns and kickoff returns. Averaged 9.6 on 28 punts to rank third in the AFC and 20.8 on 23 kickoffs to rank fourth. Had a 71-yard kickoff return at Denver, the longest non-scoring play in team history. Set a team single-season record with 16 fair catches, including four at San Diego. Tallied the Seahawks only touchdown on a one-yard run in a 13-10 overtime win over Houston. 1991: Played 16 games as a reserve running back and kick returner. Made his first career start at running back at Pittsburgh and gained 13 yards on 11 carries in a 27-7 win. Had not carried the ball prior to that game and did not carry it after. Ranked third in the AFC in kickoff returns with a 22.6 yard average, including a 55-yard return against San Diego. Had two other returns of over 40 yards. Finished fourth in punt returns with a 9.3 yard average. Became the fourth player in team history to return a punt for a touchdown with a 59-yarder against Indianapolis. It was Seattle's first touchdown return since 1986. Set a single-season mark with 19 fair catches and tied the one-game mark of five against Pittsburgh. 1992: Took over as the starting running back in the preseason and proceeded to become only the second player in team history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single season. Started 16 games and totaled 1,017 yards on 223 carries, a 4.6 yard average, and three touchdowns. Entered the season having gained only 24 career yards on 17 carries. Became one of only eight players in league history to rush for 1,000 yards on a team that won two or fewer games. Had three 100-yard games; 124 at New England, 103 versus the Washington Redskins, and 156 against the Kansas City Chiefs. Also had 97 yards at Denver. Became the first player since 1988 to have three 100-yard games in the same season. Went over the 1,000-yard mark on a 30-yard touchdown run versus San Diego on December 27, but suffered a concussion on his second carry after the scoring run and missed the rest of the game. Had totaled 66 yards on five carries before the injury. Finished fifth in the AFC in rushing and was also fifth in total yards from scrimmage with 1,151, including 134 on 16 pass receptions. Was ninth in kickoff returns with an 18.7 yard average on 28 returns. Set a team record with 1,927 all-purpose yards, 1,017 rushing, 134 receiving, 252 on punt returns, and 524 on kickoff returns, breaking Curt Warner's 1986 mark of 1,822. Had over 100 all-purpose yards in 11-of-16 games, topped by a 191-yard effort against Miami. Returned 34 punts, upping his career total to a team record 94. Also set a single-season record with 25 fair catches, which increased his own career record to 60. 1993: Started the first 14 games at running back and played in his first Pro Bowl after the season. Inactive the last two games with an abdominal injury, but topped 1,000 yards for the second straight season, only the second time that's occurred in franchise history. Finished the season third in the AFC in rushing with a career-high 1,072 yards on 238 carries, only 16 yards out of second. Seahawks led the AFC in rushing averaging 125.9 yards per game. Was eighth in total yards from scrimmage with 1,171. Had three 100-yard rushing games, 174 on a franchise record 36 carries at New England, 168 on 27 carries versus Phoenix, and 112 on 24 attempts versus Cleveland. The 174 yards was a personal best and the fourth best total in team history and earned him AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Tied for fifth in the AFC with 7 rushing touchdowns. Had a 45-yard touchdown run on Seattle's second play of the Phoenix game. Caught 15 passes for 99 yards. Rushed for a game-high 64 yards on four carries for the AFC in the Pro Bowl.

HONORS: 1990, First-team All-Rookie (Pro Football Weekly, College and Pro Football Newsweekly). 1991, First-team All-AFC (Football News). 1993, AFC Pro Bowl squad; AFC Offensive Player of Week 3 (at New England). 1994, AFC Pro Bowl Squad, Seahawks Most Valuable Player (voted by teammates), First-Team All-AFC (UPI, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association, Football News), Second-Team All-NFL (Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest), AFC Offensive Player of Week 5 (vs. Pittsburgh 9/25).

COLLEGE: School's all-time leader with 4,583 all-purpose yards, despite playing only two seasons. Originally attended the University of Virginia as a defensive back and switched to running back as a sophomore. Transferred to Ferrum prior to his junior season. First-team All-Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference in 1989 and a Football News first-team All-America in 1988. Roanoke Times & World-News State College Division Offensive Player of the Year in 1988 and 1989. Finished his career with 3,121 rushing yards, averaged 13.0 yards on 81 punt returns, and 23.3 yards on 54 kickoff returns. Added 60 receptions for a 14.9 yard average and five scores. Had 1,265 yards on 163 carries with 15 touchdowns in 1989 after setting a school record with 1,443 yards on 166 carries and 17 touchdowns as a junior. Led the nation averaging 23.4 yards on 18 punt returns in 1989 and tied an NCAA Division III record with four punt return touchdowns. Had eight total touchdowns of over 50 yards as a senior, including an 80-yard punt return and 92-yard kickoff return for scores against Guilford. Also threw a 66-yard scoring pass. Had 12 career 100-yard games, including seven as a junior. Set the school record with 235 yards, including an 85-yard scoring run, against Rhodes in the 1988 playoffs. Gained 207 yards, aided by a school record 90-yard touchdown run, against Emory and Henry in 1989. Started four-of-seven games at running back for Virginia in 1986. Rushed for 380 yards and accounted for 131.5 all-purpose yards per game after switching to running back after spring practice. Second in voting for the Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie of the Year in 1985 after recording 38 tackles and one interception. Majored in Physical Education.

PERSONAL: Lettered in football, basketball, baseball, and track at Robinson High School in Burke, Virginia. Finished third in the "NFL Run to Daylight Challenge" on June 12, 1994.

1994 Games Played/Started: 16/15
Career Games Played/Started: 64/62
Birthdate: January 14, 1967
Birthplace: Hartford, CT
Residence: Kirkland, WA

1994: Started 15-of-16 games at left linebacker and had his second consecutive standout season. Finished second on the team in tackles with a career high 127, according to unofficial press box statistics, one behind Rod Stephens. Co-led team with 12.5 tackles for loss and three interceptions. Equalled the team record for most interceptions by a linebacker. Provided many of the season's big defensive plays. Started off the season by recovering a fumbled punt on the Redskins 12 at Washington setting up the season's first touchdown. Intercepted a pass in the second quarter in that same game and returned it 69 yards for his first career touchdown. Picked off another pass the next week in Los Angeles to set up another touchdown. Had his third interception at Denver. Recovered a fumble against Tampa Bay stopping a drive at the Seahawks six in a 22-21 win. Led team in tackles eight times and was second once. Led in tackles four straight weeks, games three through six. Totaled 51 tackles in that stretch, including a career-high 15 versus San Diego. Had 12 in the other three games. Also had 12 against Cincinnati, to total a team-leading five double-figure tackle games. Had five such games entering 1994. Credited with a personal best three tackles for loss at San Diego, including a sack.

CAREER: Has been the starter at left outside linebacker since his rookie season of 1990. Chosen 29th overall by the Seahawks with the fourth pick on the second round. The pick was obtained from the New England Patriots on draft day 1990 along with the Patriots first round pick (#3 overall) in exchange for Seattle's two first-round (#8 and #10) and third-round 1990 choice, and a fourth-round 1991 choice. Limited by injuries in two-of-his-first-three seasons, but has now posted back-to-back 100-tackle seasons. Led team in tackles in 1991 with 100 and finished second in both 1993 (106) and 1994 (127). Has 23 tackles for loss in his last two seasons and three interceptions. Totals 436 career tackles, 39.5 tackles for loss, and four interceptions. Scored the first touchdown of his career with a 69-yard interception return at Washington in 1994. Also responsible for the quickest touchdown in franchise history when his forced fumble was returned by Robert Blackmon 14 seconds into a 1993 game versus the Cleveland Browns. 1990: Started the first eight games and was credited with 34 tackles on defense and five on special teams, according to unofficial press box statistics. Had eight tackles at New England and at least five in three other games. Injured his knee on kickoff coverage against San Diego and missed the last eight weeks on injured reserve. 1991: Played 16 games, starting 15, at left outside linebacker. Did not start at Atlanta as Seattle opened with six defensive backs. Led the team in tackles with 100, according to unofficial press box statistics. Had a career-high 11 tackles against the San Diego Chargers and had at least seven in eight games. Tied Tony Woods for the team lead with four fumble recoveries and equalled a team record with two at Denver. Credited with nine tackles for loss and had two sacks. 1992: Started the first eight games at left outside linebacker. Underwent arthroscopic knee surgery during the bye week and missed the last eight games on injured reserve. Ranked as the team's second-leading tackler with 55, according to unofficial press box statistics, at the time of his injury. Established new single-game career-highs in tackles in each of the two games prior to his surgery with 12 against the Los Angeles Raiders and 13 at the New York Giants. Forced a fumble against the Cincinnati Bengals and had his first career interception versus the Miami Dolphins. That theft came at the Miami six and set up a touchdown. Ed Block Courage Award winner, which is given to the player who has overcome the most in continuing his career. 1993: Started 16 games at left outside linebacker and set career highs in tackles (106), tackles for loss (10.5), sacks (2.5), and forced fumbles (3) on defense, according to unofficial press box statistics, and added two special teams tackles. Finished second in tackles and tackles for loss. Had at least seven tackles in 10-of-16 games, including two games with 10 tackles. Had 2.5 tackles for loss at Houston. Forced a fumble on a sack on the first play of the Cleveland game that was returned by Robert Blackmon for a touchdown. Score came 14 seconds into the game, fastest in franchise history. Also recovered a fumble versus the Browns.

COLLEGE: Three-time Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference pick. Starter since the fifth game of his freshman season. MAN OF THE YEAR

Brian Blades was named the Seahawks NFL Man of the Year for 1994 for his play on the field and charitable work in the community. In Seattle, he has hosted a Christmas party for underprivileged children in each of the past five seasons and has worked with First Place, a school for homeless children, Seattle Emergency Housing, Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center, First Place, United Negro College Fund, and the Big Brothers of King County. In Florida, he started the Fort Lauderdale Youth Track Club and also volunteers as a sprint coach at Coral Springs High School.

PRESEASON SUMMARIES

1 Indianapolis Colts 13, Seattle Seahawks 9
Friday, August 5, 1994 — RCA Dome

Leonard Humphries' 52-yard interception return for a touchdown with 11:16 left broke a 6-6 tie and gave the Indianapolis Colts a 13-9 win over the Seahawks. His theft came after Seattle tied the game at 6-6 on John Kasay's 23-yard field goal. Indianapolis turned the ball over three times setting up six Seattle points, while the Seahawks lone turnover resulted in seven points for the Colts. Rick Mirer started at quarterback for Seattle and played the first quarter. Dan McGwire relieved and was 9-of-17 for 67 yards with an interception. Marshall Faulk played the first half and gained a game-high 38 yards on 15 attempts. A fumbled punt and an interception set up two Kasay field goals. Mack Strong set up the Seahawks second field goal with a 56-yard reception from McGwire in the third quarter.

2 Seattle Seahawks 29, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 6
Saturday, August 13, 1994 — Husky Stadium

The Seattle defense contributed 8 points in a 22-point second quarter as the Seahawks defeated the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 29-6 in Husky Stadium. Robert Blackmon's end zone sack resulted in a safety to cut a 6-0 Buccaneers lead to 6-2. After Rick Mirer threw a 12-yard scoring pass to Robb Thomas for a 9-6 lead, rookie Sam Adams returned a fumble 17 yards for a touchdown. Jon Vaughn closed out the quarter's scoring with a nine-yard touchdown run. Stan Gelbaugh accounted for the only scoring of the second half by throwing a 19-yard touchdown pass to rookie free agent James McKnight. The Seattle defense limited Tampa Bay to 207 total yards and recorded four takeaways, including an interception and a fumble recovery by safety Jay Bellamy. Mirer completed 10-of-18 passes for 141 yards and a touchdown, and was 8-of-12 for 120 yards in the second quarter, including a 52-yard completion to Reggie Barrett. Dean Wells accounted for 8 tackles and forced a fumble. The Buccaneers only score came on a 24-yard Craig Erickson-to-Anthony McDowell touchdown pass.

3 Seattle Seahawks 30, Minnesota Vikings 19
Saturday, August 20, 1994 — Husky Stadium

Dan McGwire engineered three second half touchdown drives, including throwing two touchdown passes, as the Seahawks defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 30-19 in Husky Stadium. McGwire engineered a 79-yard, 8-play drive with the second half kickoff, ending with Lamar Smith's 27-yard scoring run, upping a 10-3 lead to 17-3. He then connected with Terrence Warren on a 14-yard scoring pass after Eugene Robinson's interception, and combined with Mack Strong on a 70-yarder in the fourth for a 30-11 advantage. Seattle took a 10-3 halftime lead on Chris Warren's two-yard scoring run and John Kasay's 55-yard into-the-wind field goal on the half's last play. The 55-yarder is a franchise best for the preseason and equaled the longest by a Seattle kicker in the regular season. The Seattle defense held the Vikings to 133 yards and one field goal in the first half, and recorded one takeaway. Smith rushed for a game-high 38 yards while Warren caught three passes for 37 yards. Strong accounted for 86 yards on his two receptions.

4 San Francisco 49ers 13, Seattle Seahawks 9
Friday, August 26, 1994 — Candlestick Park

The San Francisco 49ers scored 10 points on their first two possessions and held off the Seahawks 13-9 in the preseason finale for both teams. The 49ers Steve Young guided a pair of long drives, 11 plays, 54 yards, 5:18 TOP to Marc Logan's one-yard scoring run. A 17-play, 63-yard, 10:09 TOP ended in Doug Brien's 20-yard field goal. The Seahawks countered with field goals by John Kasay of 28 and 42 yards on their next two drives to cut the advantage to 10-6 at halftime. Kasay added a third field goal after the teams exchanged turnovers to start the third quarter, cutting the lead to 10-9, but Brien added his second three-pointer, a 29-yarder, on the ensuing drive, for a 13-9 lead. The Seahawks had two fourth quarter attempts to take the lead the first reaching the 49ers 42, before a punt, and the second ending with 1:06 left on Dana Hall's pass interception at the San Francisco 2. Young played the first half and completed 14-of-19 passes for 105 yards. As a team, the 49ers were 26-of-43 through the air for 226 yards, with one interception, and controlled the ball for 37:04. Robert Blackmon (interception) and Dean Wells (fumble recovery) had takeaways for Seattle.

REGULAR SEASON

1 Seattle Seahawks 28, Washington Redskins 7
Sunday, September 4, 1994 — Robert F. Kennedy Stadium

The Seahawks captured their first season-opening win since 1988 and gave head coach Tom Flores his 100th career victory with a 28-7 win over the Washington Redskins. The win was Seattle's fifth in 19 openers and their third in 10 on the road. Chris Warren rushed for 100 yards on 22 carries and had two touchdowns. Terry Wooden recovered a fumble and returned an interception 69 yards for his first career touchdown. Washington took a 7-0 lead by taking the opening kickoff and scoring on John Friesz's touchdown pass to Desmond Howard. After gaining 82 yards during the game's first 3:54, Seattle limited the Redskins to 176 yards the rest of the day. Jon Vaughn forced a fumble that set up Warren's first score before Wooden picked off a Friesz pass and returned it for the go-ahead touchdown. Seattle went up 21-7 as Rick Mirer engineered a 53-yard drive that started with 2:14 left in the first half and with no timeouts. Mirer ended the drive with a five-yard scoring pass to Brian Blades with 11 seconds left. Warren ended the scoring with a four-yard third quarter run.

2 Seattle Seahawks 38, Los Angeles Raiders 9
Sunday, September 11, 1994 — L.A. Memorial Coliseum

The Seahawks turned four Los Angeles Raiders turnovers into 24 points, including three second half touchdown passes from Rick Mirer in a 10:03 span for a 38-9 win at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The win was the Seahawks first over the Raiders since 1989, breaking an eight-game losing streak. Seattle built a 10-3 halftime lead on Chris Warren's four-yard touchdown run and John Kasay's 33-yard field goal. Warren's run capped the Seahawks opening possession, while Kasay's kick was set up by Rafael Robinson's recovery of a fumbled punt at the Raiders 19. The third quarter saw Terry Wooden and Patrick Hunter pick off passes to set up Mirer's touchdown passes to Brian Blades and Michael Bates. It was Bates first career touchdown on only his second career reception. Bob Spitulski added his first career interception in the fourth quarter to set up Mirer's 38-yard scoring pass to Chris Warren. In all, Mirer passed for 243 yards and a career high three touchdowns. Terry Wooden picked off a pass for the second consecutive week and Rod Stephens collected four tackles, including a pair of sacks, and forced a fumble.

3 San Diego Chargers 24, Seattle Seahawks 10
Sunday, September 18, 1994 — Husky Stadium

The San Diego Chargers used a pair of big plays and an opportunistic defense to stop the Seahawks 24-10 before a Seahawks record home crowd of 65,536 in Husky Stadium. The Chargers Chris Mims recovered a fumble at the San Diego 14 stopping Seattle's game-opening drive and fellow lineman Reuben Davis dropped Jon Vaughn for a 20-yard loss from the one to lead the San Diego first half defensive effort. After John Carney's field goal and Natrone Means' one-yard run gave the Chargers a 10-3 halftime lead, safety Stanley Richard returned an interception 73 yards for a touchdown. Backed up to their own one, San Diego's Stan Humphries connected with Tony Martin on a 99-yard touchdown pass, the longest touchdown pass by an opponent in Seahawks history and equaling the longest in NFL history. Seattle cut the deficit to 24-10 on Chris Warren's 11-yard scoring run, but could get no closer. San Diego limited the Seahawks to 187 total yards, including 59 rushing and recorded six sacks, three by Leslie O'Neal. Seattle lost running backs Chris Warren (elbow) and Jon Vaughn (eye) and starting cornerbacks Carlton Gray (ankle) and Patrick Hunter (hamstring) to injuries during the game. Warren returned and his rushing touchdown gave him at least one in a club record six consecutive games. The Seahawks were led by the career-high 15 tackles of Terry Wooden.

4 Seattle Seahawks 30, Pittsburgh Steelers 13
Sunday, September 25, 1994 — Husky Stadium

Chris Warren rushed for 126 yards and a touchdown and the Seahawks defense overcame 452 total yards allowed with four interceptions and a key goal line stand for a 30-13 win over the Steelers in Husky Stadium. Warren rushed for 82 of his total in the first half and ended the Seahawks game-opening drive with a three-yard score. It was his seventh straight game with a touchdown, equaling David Sims' team record. Warren extended his own record with a rushing touchdown in seven consecutive games. After Pittsburgh closed to within 7-3, Warren ran for 28 yards to the Pittsburgh one, setting up a touchdown pass. Rufus Porter's 33-yard interception return set up a field goal and a 17-6 halftime lead. Pittsburgh took the kickoff and advanced to a first-and-goal at the Seahawks two, but Seattle held with Eugene Robinson stopping Barry Foster from the one on fourth down. The fourth quarter saw Seattle pick off passes on three consecutive possessions the last by Orlando Watters, who returned it for a touchdown. Watters was making his first career start and was the first rookie free agent to start at cornerback for the Seahawks in their history. The four interceptions were the most by Seattle since they had five at Pittsburgh on December 6, 1992.

5 Indianapolis Colts 17, Seattle Seahawks 15
Sunday, October 2, 1994 — RCA Dome

Marshall Faulk rushed for a pair of short touchdowns and the Indianapolis defense stopped a fourth quarter comeback as the Colts defeated the Seahawks 17-15 in the RCA Dome. Faulk ran for a five-yard score in the first quarter and added a one-yarder on fourth down in the third. His first score overcame a 5-3 Seattle lead built on John Kasay's 42-yard field goal and Antonio Edwards' pressuring of Colts quarterback Jim Harbaugh into an intentional grounding call in the end zone. Kasay's kick was set up by Rod Stephens' forcing and recovering a fumble at the Colts 17 on their second offensive play. Indianapolis' first points came on a Dean Biasucci 45-yard field goal. Faulk's first score was set up by Eugene Daniels' pass interception and then upped the lead to 17-8 with a one-yard run on fourth-and-one in the third quarter. Seattle got the ball back twice, after Kelvin Martin's 30-yard touchdown reception closed the gap to 17-15. Both drives ended on downs, the first at the Indianapolis 33, after 14 plays, on a sack by Tony Siragusa, and the second at the Seahawks 40 on an incompletion. Martin equaled his single-game high with eight receptions, while recording his first career 100-yard game with 104. Faulk had a game-high 90 yards on 26 carries and added 23 yards on four receptions.

6 Denver Broncos 16, Seattle Seahawks 9
Sunday, October 9, 1994 — Husky Stadium

The Seahawks suffered their second consecutive loss, dropping a 16-9 decision to the Denver Broncos in Husky Stadium. Denver converted five Seattle turnovers into 13 points, including two field goals by Jason Elam and John Elway's two-yard run for the game's only touchdown. Elam added a third field goal at the end of a 42-yard, nine-play drive. Seattle entered the game having turned the ball over only five times in their first five games. Denver's only touchdown drive was aided by two Seahawks penalties. An offsides call nullified an Orlando Watters interception and a drive-stopping third down tackle by Robert Blackmon was negated by a holding call. Elway then scored on the next play. Leonard Russell rushed for a 103 yards on 24 carries, becoming the first runner in 1994 to hit the century mark against the Seahawks, and the first in 24 games dating back to October 17, 1993. For Seattle, Chris Warren rushed for 80 yards on 18 carries and added a career-high six receptions for 41 yards. Denver safety Steve Atwater had an interception and a fumble recovery, while cornerback Randy Hilliard intercepted a pass and forced two fumbles. For Seattle, linebacker Terry Wooden had his fourth straight game with at least 12 tackles, recording a game-high 12.

7 Kansas City Chiefs 38, Seattle Seahawks 23
Sunday, October 23, 1994 — Arrowhead Stadium

Joe Montana and Marcus Allen paced the offense while the Kansas City defense held the Seahawks to 263 total yards and had three sacks in a 38-23 win at Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City jumped to a 13-0 halftime lead on Montana's nine-yard scoring pass to Kimble Anders and two field goals. At the half, the Chiefs held the advantage in total yards (233-58), plays (42-18) and time of possession (21:13-8:47). Seattle came out on the opening drive of the second half going 11 plays, including 10 rushing, leading to Jon Vaughn's three-yard scoring run. Allen then scored his touchdown and a two-point conversion and Montana connected with Lake Dawson for a score. After a field goal, Rick Mirer and Brian Blades hooked up for a pair of scores from one-yard and nine-yards out. The first was set up by Warren's season-long 41-yard run to the Chiefs three. Kansas City's 38 points were the most against Seattle since Denver scored 41 on November 26, 1989, a span of 75 games. Their 477 total yards were the most surrendered since a Montana-led San Francisco team rolled up 580 on September 25, 1988. Warren had his third 100-yard game of the season with 117 on 19 attempts.

8 San Diego Chargers 35, Seattle Seahawks 15
Sunday, October 30, 1994 — Jack Murphy Stadium

Seattle jumped to a 7-0 second quarter lead only to see the Chargers score 35 unanswered points for a 35-15 win at Jack Murphy Stadium. The loss was the Seahawks fourth straight and left them 0-for-October. Chris Warren scored on a nine-yard touchdown run 2:19 into the period. San Diego closed to 7-6 on a pair of field goals, before they converted a turnover into Ronnie Harmon's scoring run. Harmon added the two-point conversion for a 14-7 halftime lead. Another fumble set up Natrone Means five-yard score. Reserve quarterback Gale Gilbert replaced starter Stan Humphries (dislocated elbow) in the third quarter and guided the Chargers on three touchdown drives including throwing two touchdown passes. The Seahawks closed out the scoring on Jon Vaughn's 93-yard kickoff return touchdown with 1:28 left. Means rushed for 104 yards for the Chargers, his fourth straight game over the century mark. Warren rushed for 92 yards and Brian Blades caught six passes for 89 yards for Seattle, while Seahawks cornerback Carlton Gray ended an opponents streak of 118 straight pass attempts without an interception as he picked off Gilbert in the third quarter.

9 Cincinnati Bengals 20, Seattle Seahawks 17 (Overtime)
Sunday, November 6, 1994 — Kingdome

Doug Pelfrey's Cincinnati record sixth field goal of the game, 8:14 left into overtime, gave the visiting Bengals their first win of 1994, 20-17 over the Seahawks. The game was Seattle's first in the Kingdome since December 26, 1993, because of ceiling repair work. Pelfrey's kick came one play after quarterback Jeff Blake connected on a 76-yard pass to Darnay Scott to the Seattle 7. Blake, making only his second career start, threw for 387 yards, the sixth most yards by an opposing quarterback in team history. Scott had a personal best 157 yards as Cincinnati gained 496 total yards, the most allowed by Seattle since 1988. Pelfrey's six field goals broke the Bengals team record of five set four times previously, including once by Pelfrey. It also tied the Seahawks opponent record. His fifth with 4:27 left tied the game at 17-17. It was the 24th time in the Seahawks history that the team had not allowed a touchdown and dropped their record to 22-2. Seattle's Brian Blades became the second player in team history to have both a rushing and receiving play of at least 40 yards in the same game. Rod Stephens' 16 tackles led the defense and were the most by a Seattle player since 1987.

10 Denver Broncos 17, Seattle Seahawks 10
Sunday, November 13, 1994 — Mile High Stadium

Leonard Russell's 11-yard touchdown run with 5:43 left and a fourth down stop by the defense gave the Denver Broncos a 17-10 win over the Seahawks at Mile High Stadium. The win was the fourth straight by the Broncos over the Seahawks and puts them 14-3 all-time at home against Seattle. Denver used a second quarter scoring run by John Elway and a third quarter field goal to build a 10-0 lead before the Seahawks rallied to tie the game at 10-10. After a field goal, Chris Warren capped a 43-yard drive after Orlando Watters' interception with a touchdown run. Denver answered with a drive of their own capped by Russell's run. The Seahawks had one late drive, moving from their own 15 to the Broncos 22, primarily on the strength of Warren's 51-yard reception, but the Broncos held on downs with 1:19. Seattle was only 1-of-11 on third downs and failed three times to convert third-and-one situations and was penalized 12 times to only one for Denver. Warren accounted for a career-high 200 total yards from scrimmage, as Seattle gained 289 yards for the game. His 51-yard reception and 78 total receiving yards were a personal high. Warren added 122 yards rushing on 18 carries for his fourth 100-yard game of the season and 10th of his career. Russell had 109 rushing yards, the most allowed an individual by Seattle since the Philadelphia Eagles Herschel Walker had 111 on 12/13/92.

11 Seattle Seahawks 22, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 21
Sunday, November 20, 1994 — Kingdome

Mack Strong's seven-yard touchdown with 42 seconds left gave the Seahawks a 22-21 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Strong, who was in the game because of a hip injury to starting running back Chris Warren, contributed three carries for 20 yards and one reception for 5 yards on the drive. A first-year player, Strong was seeing action on offense for the first time in his career after spending the 1993 season on the practice squad. Seattle jumped to a 15-0 lead on a pair of Rick Mirer touchdown passes and Rick Tuten's two-point conversion run. Warren rushed for 76 yards on 10 carries in the first quarter, surpassing the 1,000-yard mark for the third consecutive season, and finished the first half with 114 yards on 14 carries. He was injured on his second carry of the second half and finished with 116 yards on 16 carries. Tampa Bay rebounded to take an 18-15 fourth quarter lead on two Craig Erickson touchdown passes and two field goals. Eugene Robinson sealed the win with an end zone interception on the game's final play. Eric Rhett rushed for 111 yards on 24 carries for Tampa Bay, who controlled the ball for 33:09 and was a plus-1 in the takeaway/turnover ratio. Martin Mayhew had an interception and a fumble recovery for the Buccaneers.

12 Seattle Seahawks 10, Kansas City Chiefs 9
Sunday, November 27, 1994 — Kingdome

The Seahawks scored 10 fourth quarter points, capped by John Kasay's 32-yard field goal with 1:42 left for a 10-9 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. The win was the Seahawks first over the Chiefs since 1990 snapping a seven-game losing streak to Kansas City. It also marked the first time in franchise history that the Seahawks have posted back-to-back one-point wins. The visitors took a 6-0 lead into the fourth quarter on a pair of Lin Elliott field goals. Seattle answered with a Steve Smith touchdown run before the Chiefs countered with Elliott's third field goal. The two teams then exchanged punts with the Seahawks Kelvin Martin returning his 16 yards to the Chiefs 39 with 2:57 left. Rick Mirer connected with Brian Blades for 16 yards and three Chris Warren runs positioned the ball on the 14 for Kasay's kick. Kansas City had one last drive moving to their own 43, but Orlando Watters forced a fumble, which Robert Blackmon recovered and Seattle ran out the clock. Blackmon tied a Seattle record with two fumble recoveries, while also forcing one. Cortez Kennedy had a season-high 9 tackles. The Chiefs bottled up Warren, the AFC's leading rusher, holding him to 53 yards on 22 carries, but allowed Blades 141 receiving yards, the most by a Seattle receiver since he had 160 at New Orleans on September 1, 1991. Kansas City played the last 16:00 minutes of the game without quarterback Joe Montana, who left the game with a foot injury.

13 Indianapolis Colts 31, Seattle Seahawks 19
Sunday, December 4, 1994 — Kingdome

Marshall Faulk and Ray Buchanan sparked the Indianapolis Colts to a 30-19 win over the Seahawks in the Kingdome. Faulk rushed for a Seattle 1994 opponent best 127 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown run, while Buchanan returned an interception 37 yards for a score and recorded a sack. The touchdowns allowed the Colts to overcome a 10-0 Seattle lead built on John Kasay's field goal and Rick Mirer's scoring pass to Paul Green 11 seconds apart in the first quarter. Kasay cut the Indianapolis lead to 14-13 with a field goal before the Colts Dan Majkowski scored on a one-yard run and threw a scoring pass to Sean Dawkins. Faulk had 138 of the Colts 288 yards, while the defense held Seattle to 238 total yards, recorded five sacks and forced five turnovers. Tony Siragusa had 10 tackles, two sacks, and forced and recovered a fumble. Chris Warren, playing with two fractured ribs suffered in a Thursday evening traffic accident, rushed for 81 yards for the Seahawks. Green caught seven passes, equaling the team record for a tight end. Seattle lost quarterback Rick Mirer in the second quarter with a fractured left thumb, which required surgery. Brian Blades caught four passes to surpass 400 for his career.

14 Seattle Seahawks 16, Houston Oilers 14
Sunday, December 19, 1994 — Astrodome

Chris Warren rushed for a personal best 185 yards as the Seahawks held on to defeat the Houston Oilers 16-14 in the Astrodome. Playing with cracked ribs, Warren carried 30 times and had runs of 33 yards for a touchdown and 32 yards. Both his yards and attempts were the third most in team history and were achieved despite ribs that limited him to two carries for one yard in the fourth quarter. Strong took over in that quarter with four carries for 22 yards. Dan McGwire made his first start since October 11, 1992, and third of his career. Seattle jumped to a 16-0 lead on John Kasay's field goal and touchdown runs by Warren and Mack Strong. Cortez Kennedy had set up Kasay's field goal by forcing and recovering a fumble on the game's first play. Kennedy contributed six tackles, three tackles for loss, two sacks, and a forced and recovered fumble to a Seattle defense that limited the Oilers to 208 total yards. Houston scored on a Billy Joe Tolliver-to-Webster Slaughter pass and a 78-yard punt return by Ernest Givins, the Oilers first since 1977. Tolliver connected with Haywood Jeffires on a two-point conversion after Slaughter's score, but strong safety Robert Blackmon stopped Todd McNair with a Tolliver pass at the one after Givins' score. The Oilers had one last chance, recovering an onsides kick attempt at their own 47, but Orlando Watters picked off Tolliver's fourth down attempt. The Seahawks lost free safety Eugene Robinson (Achilles) and left tackle Ray Roberts (broken leg) for the season during the game.

15 Los Angeles Raiders 17, Seattle Seahawks 16
Sunday, December 18, 1994 — Kingdome

The Los Angeles Raiders escaped with a 17-16 win in the Kingdome, when Seattle kicker John Kasay's 43-yard field goal attempt with 9 seconds left was wide right. Kasay's kick came at the end of a 10-play drive started on the Seattle 26 and included a pair of Dan McGwire completion's to Kelvin Martin for 51 yards, a 19-yarder on fourth-and-17 and a 32-yarder to the Raiders 30. Chris Warren then ran twice for five yards setting up Kasay. After a scoreless first quarter, the Raiders jumped to a 7-0 lead on Harvey Williams five-yard run. After the teams traded field goals, Seattle tied the game with 1:00 left in the first half on Warren's 33-yard run. The Seahawks upped their lead to 16-10 on two Kasay field goals, before Hostetler countered with a 77-yard touchdown strike to Tim Brown and a 17-16 lead. Seattle had three more possessions and mounted a drive only on the last one. Warren rushed for 122 yards on 24 carries to set a new franchise single-season record of 1,484 yards, eclipsing Curt Warner's 1986 mark of 1,481 yards. It was his seventh 100-yard game of 1994, tying Warner's record. Brian Blades caught five passes for 70 yards, surpassing 1,000 yards for the third time in his career. Brown caught four passes for 107 yards for the Raiders, while Williams rushed for 93 yards. It was the first game of his career that Eugene Robinson did not play. It was also the first game in Seattle's 291-game history that neither team turned the ball over.

16 Cleveland Browns 35, Seattle Seahawks 9
Saturday, December 24, 1994 — Cleveland Stadium

Vinny Testaverde passed for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead the playoff-bound Cleveland Browns to a 35-9 win over the Seahawks in Cleveland. The win clinched a first-round home postseason game for Cleveland, while the Seahawks finished the season 6-10 for the second consecutive season. Cleveland's game-opening drive was capped by Eric Metcalf's six-yard touchdown run. Testaverde accounted for both second quarter scores as the Browns took a 21-0 halftime lead. Cleveland outgained the Seahawks 205-98 in the first half, controlling the ball for 19:31. After John Kasay kicked a 30-yard field goal on the first possession of the second half, Testaverde threw his second touchdown pass. Mark Carrier concluded the Browns scoring with a 14-yard run on a reverse. The Seahawks only touchdown came on a pass from Stan Gelbaugh to James McKnight with 1:22 left. It was Gelbaugh's first action of the season, while McKnight, a free agent rookie, was seeing his first action on offense. Seattle started their fifth different defensive backfield combination in five games, including free safety Dion Lambert, who had signed with the team on Monday night. Chris Warren finished the game with 61 rushing yards on 16 carries to win the AFC rushing title with a team record 1,545 yards. He also led in total yards from scrimmage with 1,868 yards. Seattle's Brian Blades caught six passes giving him 81, breaking his own 1993 team record of 80.

CHRONOLOGY

1972 — 6/15 Seattle Professional Football, a group of business and community leaders, announces their intention to attempt to secure a National Football League franchise for the City of Seattle. Herman Sarkowsky serves as spokesman for the group. 11/2 Construction begins on The Kingdome.

1974 — 6/4 The National Football League announces that Seattle will have a franchise for the 1976 season. 12/5 The National Football League announces that it has voted membership to Seattle Professional Football, Inc., headed by Lloyd W. Nordstrom with partners Herman Sarkowsky, D.E. "Ned" Skinner, Howard S. Wright, M. Lamont Bean, and Lynn P. Himmelman.

1975 — 3/6 John Thompson, Executive Director of the NFL Management Council, named General Manager. 6/17 Nickname "Seahawks" selected from 20,365 entries and 1,741 different names. One hundred fifty-one suggest "Seahawks." 7/25 Season ticket applications mailed. 7/28 Season ticket applications accepted — 24,168 received the first day. 8/23 Season ticket sales closed after target of 59,000 reached. 12/18 Seahawks agree to a 20-year lease agreement to play all games in the Kingdome.

1976 — 1/3 Jack Patera, defensive line coach of the Minnesota Vikings, named head coach. 1/20 Lloyd W. Nordstrom, spokesman for the Nordstrom family, the Seahawks' majority owner, dies of a heart attack while vacationing in Mexico. 3/30 Veteran Allocation held in New York City. Seahawks select 39 NFL veterans. 4/8-9 Seahawks select 25 collegians in their first college draft. Notre Dame's Steve Niehaus is the first choice and he flies to Seattle for evening news conference on April 8. 7/9 Seahawks open training camp at Eastern Washington University in Cheney. 8/1 Seahawks play first game before 60,825 fans in the Kingdome. San Francisco holds on to defeat Seattle, 27-20, as Jim Zorn is tackled on the 49ers' two-yard line when the gun sounds. 8/29 Seahawks capture first victory, a 17-16 preseason win over San Diego, as Ron Howard catches a three-yard Jim Zorn pass for the winning touchdown with only 13 seconds remaining in the contest. 9/12 Seattle opens regular season play with a near miss against St. Louis, 30-24. The game ends with the Cardinals intercepting a pass in the end zone. 10/17 Seahawks win Expansion Bowl with 13-10 victory over host Tampa Bay. Linebacker Mike Curtis blocks a Tampa Bay field goal attempt with 42 seconds remaining to preserve the victory. 11/7 Seahawks capture their first regular season victory at home with a 30-13 win over Atlanta. Sherman Smith becomes the first Seattle back to rush for over 100 yards with 124 yards on 14 carries.

1977 — 1/17 Seahawks host the Pro Bowl and it is the first sellout in the 27-year history of the game and is the largest crowd under the AFC vs. NFC format. AFC scores a 24-14 win before 63,214 fans. 5/3 Seattle trades its first-round draft choice, the second player in the draft, to Dallas for the Cowboys' first-round selection and three second-round picks. The Seahawks select Steve August, offensive guard from Tulsa, on the first round. 10/30 After missing four games with an injury, Jim Zorn returns to lead Seattle to a 56-17 triumph over Buffalo. The Seahawks set 15 club records and equal six, including Zorn's four TD passes. 11/13 Seattle defense blanks the New York Jets, 17-0, in Shea Stadium, the first time an established team is shutout by a second-year team. 12/18 Seahawks win their fifth game of the year, a 20-19 decision over Cleveland before 61,583 fans in the Kingdome, to establish a record for most wins ever by a second-year expansion team.

1978 — 5/3 Keith Simpson, cornerback from Memphis State, is selected as Seattle's first-round draft choice followed by his college teammate Keith Butler, a linebacker, on the second round. 10/8 Efren Herrera kicks a 19-yard field goal on the final play of the game to give Seattle a 29-28 win over the Minnesota Vikings. 11/26 Seattle becomes the first team since 1965 to beat Oakland twice during the regular season with a 17-16 win on Efren Herrera's 46-yard field goal with just three seconds remaining. 12/17 Seahawks end their third season with a 9-7 record and finish one game behind Denver in the AFC West standings following a 23-19 win over Kansas City. Al Hunter rushes for 133 yards on 27 carries as Seahawks perform before sixth-straight home sellout crowd.

1979 — 1/29 Steve Largent catches a record-equalling five passes as Seattle's first representative to the Pro Bowl. National Football Conference defeats Largent and his AFC teammates, 13-7, in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. 5/3 Manu Tuiasosopo, defensive tackle from UCLA, becomes Seattle's first-round draft choice. 10/29 After trailing 14-0, the Seahawks rebound for a 31-28 win over Atlanta in Seattle's first appearance on ABC's Monday Night Football. Dan Doornink rushes for 122 yards on 21 carries and scores twice. 12/16 The Seahawks close out their second straight 9-7 season with a 29-24 win over Oakland. Sam McCullum sets a club record with 173 yards receiving on eight catches.

1980 — 4/29 Seattle trades its first-round draft choice and a third-round pick to Buffalo for the Bills' first-round choice, the tenth player in the draft. The Seahawks then select defensive end Jacob Green of Texas A&M on the first round. 9/28 Seahawks score second shutout in the club's history with a 14-0 win over Washington Redskins in Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium. 10/5 Sam McCullum catches two touchdown passes and Efren Herrera kicks four field goals in 26-7 win over Houston at the Astrodome. The win would prove to be Seattle's last of the season.

1981 — 4/28 Seahawks select UCLA safety Kenny Easley on the first round of the NFL draft. 11/8 Seattle holds the Pittsburgh Steelers scoreless in the second half and rallies for a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns to capture a 24-21 victory at the Kingdome. 11/16 The Seahawks score on their last eight possessions to defeat the San Diego Chargers, 44-23, on Monday Night Football. It is the Seahawks' first regular season victory over the Chargers after eight straight losses.

1982 — 3/11 Mike McCormack, former head coach with the Philadelphia Eagles and Baltimore Colts, is named Director of Football Operations. 4/27 Seahawks select Clemson defensive end Jeff Bryant in the first round of the college draft. 9/21 Players go on strike for 57 days. 10/13 Mike McCormack named interim head coach after the firing of head coach Jack Patera and general manager John Thompson. 11/21 Seahawks capture 17-10 victory over the host Denver Broncos in Mike McCormack's first game as head coach following the players' strike. Steve Largent catches a 34-yard touchdown pass from Jim Zorn with 49 seconds left for the victory. 11/28 Seahawks shutout the Pittsburgh Steelers, 16-0, for the club's third shutout in history and first at the Kingdome.

1983 — 1/2 Seahawks conclude nine-game season with a 13-11 win over the Denver Broncos as Dave Krieg throws a 19-yard touchdown pass to Roger Carr with 47 seconds left. The Seahawks drive 87 yards in 10 plays with no timeouts to score the winning touchdown. Seattle finishes the season 4-5 but were 4-3 under Mike McCormack. 1/3 Mike McCormack named President and General Manager after previously serving as Director of Football Operations since March 11, 1982, and interim head coach since October 13, 1982. 1/26 Chuck Knox named head coach. Knox previously had served as head coach of the Los Angeles Rams (1973-77) and the Buffalo Bills (1978-82). He guided seven of his ten teams to the playoffs, while winning six division championships. 3/15 Chuck Allen, who joined the Seahawks staff in June of 1975 as Director of Pro Scouting, named Assistant General Manager. 4/26 Seattle selects Penn State running back Curt Warner in the NFL draft. Warner is the third player taken on the first round. To be able to get Warner, the Seahawks trade their first, second and third-round selections to the Houston Oilers for the Oilers first-round pick. 9/11 Seahawks win first game under Chuck Knox, 17-10, over the New York Jets, as the club sets a team record with 57 rushing attempts and Curt Warner gains 128 yards on 24 carries. 10/16 Seahawks force eight turnovers and register eight sacks in 38-36 victory over the Los Angeles Raiders. 10/30 Seahawks make it two straight over Raiders with 34-21 win. 12/18 Seahawks clinch first playoff berth with 24-6 win over New England. 12/24 Dave Krieg throws three touchdown passes and Curt Warner rushes for 99 yards in 31-7 win over Denver in the AFC Wild Card Game before 60,752 fans in the Kingdome. 12/31 Seahawks drive 66 yards in five plays late in the fourth quarter to capture divisional playoff win over Miami, 27-20, before 71,032 fans at the Orange Bowl.

1984 — 1/8 Los Angeles Raiders defeat the Seahawks, 30-14, in the AFC Championship Game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum before 88,734 fans. 5/1 Seahawks select cornerback Terry Taylor of Southern Illinois as their first-round choice in the annual NFL draft. 9/3 Seahawks win regular season opener for the first time in franchise history, 33-0 over the Cleveland Browns. The enthusiasm is dampened by a knee injury to Curt Warner which will keep him out for the rest of the season. 10/29 Seahawks post their second shutout of the season with a 24-0 victory over the San Diego Chargers on Monday Night Football. Kenny Easley intercepts a club record three passes and Steve Largent catches three touchdown passes. 11/4 Seahawks set an NFL record by returning four interceptions for touchdowns, including two by Dave Brown, in a 45-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Kenny Easley and Keith Simpson had the other two interception returns for touchdowns. 11/25 Dave Krieg throws for 406 yards and three touchdowns, including an 80-yarder to Daryl Turner on the first play of the game, to lead the Seahawks past Denver, 27-24. Steve Largent catches 12 passes for 191 yards and one score. 12/2 Seahawks clinch playoff berth with a 38-17 win over Detroit as Dave Krieg throws a team record five touchdown passes. 12/22 Seattle eliminates the defending Super Bowl Champion Los Angeles Raiders, 13-7, from the playoffs in the AFC Wild Card Game at the Kingdome. Seahawks rush for 205 yards and force three turnovers, along with registering six sacks, in the victory. 12/29 Miami defeats the Seahawks, 31-10, in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at the Orange Bowl.

1985 — 6/18 Seahawks and Northwest College agree to a long-term lease for a new practice and office complex for the club in Kirkland. The facility will be built on 12 acres adjacent to Northwest College. A 36,000-square foot building will house the club's administrative offices, locker room and training facilities. 7/20 Seahawks open their tenth and final training camp at Eastern Washington University in Cheney. 9/8 Curt Warner returns to the Seattle lineup after missing all but the 1984 opener as the Seahawks defeat Cincinnati, 28-24, at Riverfront Stadium. Warner gains 66 yards on 17 carries and scores the game-winning touchdown on an 11-yard run with 7:07 remaining. 9/15 Daryl Turner sets a club record with four touchdown catches and Dave Krieg equals another with five touchdown passes in Seattle's 49-35 victory over the San Diego Chargers at Jack Murphy Stadium. 10/13 Dave Krieg passes for 405 yards and four touchdowns, including a 12-yarder to Paul Skansi for the winning touchdown with 35 seconds remaining, as Seahawks defeat Atlanta, 30-26. Krieg directs the Seahawks 86 yards in 16 plays on the winning drive. 10/21 Ceremonial ground-breaking is held for team's new headquarters. 11/3 Terry Taylor returns an interception 75 yards for a touchdown and blocks a field goal attempt that is recovered by Byron Walker and returned 56 yards for a touchdown in Seattle's 33-3 win over the Los Angeles Raiders at the Kingdome.

1986 — 4/29 Seahawks select Florida fullback John L. Williams as their first-round draft choice. Williams is the 15th player picked overall. 6/18 Seahawks move into new headquarters on a 12-acre site adjacent to Northwest College in Kirkland. 7/16 Seahawks open their 11th training camp and first in Kirkland. 9/7 Seahawks kickoff their 1986 regular season schedule with a 30-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers at the Kingdome. 10/6 Seahawks defeat San Diego Chargers, 33-7, on Monday Night Football as Steve Largent breaks NFL record for most consecutive games with a pass reception. Largent catches a pass in the 128th straight game in which he participated. 10/19 Jacob Green registers four sacks and Dave Brown intercepts two passes in leading Seattle to a 17-12 win over the eventual Super Bowl champion New York Giants. 11/27 Seahawks defeat the Dallas Cowboys, 31-14, on Thanksgiving Day as Curt Warner runs for 122 yards and Dave Krieg completes 16-of-24 passes for 214 yards and two touchdowns. 12/8 Seattle hands the Los Angeles Raiders their biggest defeat since 1962, 37-0, as Curt Warner gains 116 yards and Dave Krieg passes for 243 yards and two touchdowns. Seattle gains 407 yards in total offense, while the defense holds the Raiders to 138 yards. 12/20 Seahawks close out five-game winning streak and a 10-6 season by defeating eventual AFC Champion Denver, 41-16. The Seahawks gain a season high 536 yards, including a club record 298 yards rushing, led by Curt Warner's 192 yards and three touchdowns on 24 carries.

1987 — 4/28 Seahawks select University of Pittsburgh linebacker Tony Woods in the first round of the NFL draft. Woods is the 18th player picked. 6/12 Seahawks win lottery for first choice in supplemental draft and select University of Oklahoma linebacker Brian Bosworth. 9/13 After first two regular season games, NFL Players Association calls a strike that will last four weeks. Games for Sunday, September 18, are cancelled. 10/25 Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 35-13, in first game with regulars following the strike. Seattle builds up a 28-0 halftime lead and wins in Los Angeles for the first time since 1983. 12/13 Dave Krieg completes 23-of-33 passes for 238 yards and Ray Butler catches six passes for 107 yards and two touchdowns in leading Seattle past Denver, 28-21, at the Kingdome. 12/20 Seahawks clinch playoff berth with a 34-21 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field. John L. Williams sparks the offense with a 75-yard touchdown on a screen pass from Dave Krieg and the defense contributes five takeaways.

12/27 Steve Largent catches six passes in a 41-20 loss at Kansas City and becomes the NFL's all-time leading receiver with 751. Largent breaks the previous record of 750 by Charlie Joiner.

1988 — 1/3 Seahawks close out the 1987 season with a 23-20 overtime loss to the Houston Oilers at the Astrodome in the AFC First-Round Playoff Game. 4/24 Seahawks use their second-round choice in the draft to select University of Miami wide receiver Brian Blades. The Seahawks first-round pick had been exercised in the June 1987 supplemental draft. 8/30 Ken Behring and Ken Hofmann complete their purchase of the Seahawks from the Nordstrom family. 9/4 Seahawks open 13th season with a 21-14 win at Denver over the two-time defending AFC Champion Broncos. Curt Warner scores twice and John L. Williams accounts for 161 yards from scrimmage. It is Seattle's first win in Denver since 1984. 9/18 Steve Largent becomes the NFL's all-time leader in pass receiving yards with 12,167 at San Diego, but the Seahawks lose to the Chargers, 17-6. Largent breaks Charlie Joiner's record of 12,146 yards. 10/2 Rookie quarterback Kelly Stouffer makes his first NFL start for an injured Dave Krieg and leads the Seahawks to a 31-20 win over the Atlanta Falcons in Atlanta. John L. Williams ties a team record with three rushing touchdowns. 11/13 Seahawks defeat the Houston Oilers, 27-24, as Dave Krieg returns after missing seven games with a shoulder separation. Krieg engineers a 10-play drive to set up Norm Johnson's game-winning field goal with less than one second left. 11/28 Dave Krieg equals his own team record with five touchdown passes as Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 35-27, on Monday night in the Kingdome. Curt Warner (130) and John L. Williams (105) become the first pair of Seahawks to each gain over 100 yards rushing in the same game. 12/11 Seahawks score touchdowns on their first six possessions in a 42-17 win over Denver. Curt Warner establishes a team record with four rushing touchdowns. Warner (126) and John L. Williams (109) each top 100 yards rushing. 12/18 John L. Williams accounts for 239 yards of offense, including 180 receiving, and Dave Krieg throws for 410 yards and four scores, as the Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 43-37, in Los Angeles to clinch the first AFC Western Division title in franchise history. 12/31 Seahawks are eliminated from the playoffs by the eventual AFC Champion Cincinnati Bengals, 21-13, in Riverfront Stadium.

1989 — 2/22 Tom Flores named President/General Manager, replacing Mike McCormack. Flores guided the Los Angeles Raiders to an 83-53 regular season record and two Super Bowl titles in nine seasons, 1979-87, as their head coach. 4/23 Seahawks select Notre Dame tackle Andy Heck with the fifteenth pick of the first round of the draft. 9/10 Seahawks lose regular season opener in Philadelphia, 31-7, and also lose wide receiver Steve Largent for six weeks with a broken elbow. Largent, however, scores Seattle's only touchdown. 10/29 Dave Krieg and Brian Blades combine on a 21-yard touchdown pass with 40 seconds left in a 10-7 win over the San Diego Chargers. The win is the 100th in regular season play for the Seahawks. Blades catches a career high 10 passes for 117 yards. 11/26 Steve Largent ties Don Hutson's NFL record of 99 career receiving touchdowns in the Seahawks 41-14 loss at Denver. 12/4 Dave Krieg ignites a three-game winning streak with 298 yards passing and the game-winning touchdown pass in a 17-16 Monday night win over Buffalo. 12/10 Seahawks win 24-17 at Cincinnati as Dave Krieg throws three touchdown passes. One goes to Steve Largent, the NFL record 100th of his career. 12/17 John L. Williams catches a career high 12 passes for 129 yards as the Seahawks defeat the Los Angeles Raiders, 23-17. 12/23 Seahawks close out the season with a 29-0 loss to the Washington Redskins. In pregame ceremonies, retiring wide receiver Steve Largent is honored and his is the first name inducted in the Seahawks Ring of Honor.

1990 — 4/22 Seahawks trade four draft choices to the New England Patriots, including two first-round choices, to move up and select University of Miami defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy with the third overall choice. Seahawks also receive a second-round choice from the Patriots which they use to select Syracuse University linebacker Terry Wooden. 8/4 Seahawks play their first-ever international game as they drop a 10-7 preseason decision to the Denver Broncos in Tokyo, Japan. 10/1 Seahawks defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 31-16, for their first win after opening the season with three consecutive losses. Derrick Fenner scores three touchdowns for the second straight week. 11/11 Seahawks score their first win in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium since 1980 as Dave Krieg throws a 25-yard touchdown pass to Paul Skansi as time expires. The PAT gives Seattle a 17-16 win and starts a four-game streak of games decided on the last play. The win is the 159th of Chuck Knox's career, moving him into seventh place all-time. 11/25 Norm Johnson's 40-yard field goal 3:01 into overtime gives the Seahawks a 13-10 win at San Diego. Seattle forces and recovers a pair of fumbles, the first with 48 seconds left in regulation and the second with 1:34 gone in overtime. 12/2 In almost a replay from the week before, Seattle defeats the Houston Oilers 13-10 in overtime after recovering a fumble. Norm Johnson connects from 42 yards out after David Wyman recovers a Tony Woods-forced fumble. Seahawks become only the third team in NFL history to win back-to-back overtime games. 12/9 The Seahawks defense sets single-game records for fewest rushing first downs (0) and rushing yards allowed (13) in a game in a 20-14 win over the Green Bay Packers in Milwaukee. 12/23 Seattle moves over the .500 mark with a 17-12 win over the Denver Broncos. The Broncos are penalized on the game's last play, negating what would have been a game-winning touchdown pass. 12/30 Derrick Fenner scores two touchdowns for the fourth time as Seattle defeats the Detroit Lions 30-10 in the Kingdome, to finish at 9-7 after an 0-3 start. Fenner ends the season equalling team records for total touchdowns (15) and rushing touchdowns (14), totals that lead the AFC.

1991 — 4/21 Seahawks select San Diego State quarterback Dan McGwire with the 16th pick on the first round of the 1991 NFL Draft. The 6-8, 243-pound McGwire is the first quarterback ever selected on the first round by Seattle. 4/25 Head Coach Chuck Knox agrees to a two-year contract extension. 8/3 Quarterback Jim Zorn (1976-84) becomes the second person inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor. 9/1 Seahawks drop season opener, 27-24, at New Orleans and lose starting quarterback Dave Krieg for six weeks with a broken thumb in the process. Wide receiver Brian Blades sets career highs with 12 receptions, 160 yards, and two touchdowns. 9/8 Jeff Kemp makes his first start since September 25, 1988, and throws two touchdown passes in a 20-13 win over the New York Jets. One goes to Travis McNeal, the first of his career. 9/29 Chris Warren's 59-yard punt return touchdown, the first by a Seahawks player since 1986, sparks a 31-3 win over the visiting Indianapolis Colts. The defense limits the Colts to 137 yards and records five sacks. Rookie first-round draft choice Dan McGwire starts and plays the first half, engineering a 50-yard touchdown drive on his first possession. 10/6 The Seahawks defense stops the Cincinnati Bengals on a 4th-and-four inches short with 29 seconds left to preserve a 13-7 win at Riverfront Stadium. Dwayne Harper and Nesby Glasgow combine for the tackle, which comes at the Seattle 22. 10/20 Dave Krieg returns from missing six games on injured reserve to lead Seattle to a 27-7 win at Pittsburgh. Krieg throws for 266 yards, completing 25-of-31 passes, and two scores. 10/27 John Kasay equals an NFL record with two field goals of 50-or-more yards in a 20-9 win over the San Diego Chargers. Kasay connects from 54 and 51 yards. The 54-yarder equals the team record. 11/24 The defense forces four turnovers and has five sacks, three by Rufus Porter, in a 13-10 win over the eventual AFC West Champion Denver Broncos in the Kingdome. Additionally, the defense twice holds on downs inside Seahawks territory in the game's last 4:49. 12/22 Seattle finishes their 16th season with a 7-9 record after defeating the Los Angeles Rams, 23-9, in the Kingdome. It was the first win by the Seahawks over the Rams in five regular season games. James Jones rushes for a pair of scores, while the defense keeps their third 1991 opponent out of the end zone. 12/27 The Seahawks and head coach Chuck Knox agree to mutually end Knox's nine-year tenure as head coach. Knox leaves having compiled an 80-63-0 (55.9%) regular season record. He guided the Seahawks to four playoff appearances, including an AFC West title in 1988.

1992 — 1/6 Seahawks President/General Manager Tom Flores is named President/Head Coach. Flores coached nine seasons, 1979-87, with the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders and compiled an 83-53-0 (61.0%) regular season record. He led the Raiders to two Super Bowl Championships, XV and XVIII, the only Super Bowls won by the AFC in the decade of the 1980's. 1/8 Larry Kennan, Coach of the Year in the World League of American Football in 1991, is named Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach. Kennan guided the London Monarchs to an 11-1 record and WLAF Championship in the league's first season. Kennan served as an NFL assistant with the Los Angeles Raiders (1982-87), Denver Broncos (1988) and Indianapolis Colts (1989-90). 1/9 Seahawks defensive assistants George Dyer (line), Rod Perry (secondary), and Joe Vitt (special assignments), along with John Becker (offensive coordinator/wide receivers) and Chick Harris (running backs) leave the Seahawks to join Chuck Knox with the Los Angeles Rams. 1/11 Seahawks assistant head coach Tom Catlin announces he will stay with the Seahawks as assistant head coach/defense. In addition, Rusty Tillman is promoted from special teams coach to defensive coordinator, Russ Purnell from tight ends and assistant special teams to special teams and tight ends coach, and Paul Moyer from staff assistant to defensive backfield coach. 1/21 Offensive Line Coach Hudson Houck and running backs coach Clarence Shelmon are added to Tom Flores' staff. Both coaches come to the Seahawks from the Los Angeles Rams. 1/22 Bob Bratkowski, offensive coordinator at the University of Miami for the past three seasons, is named wide receivers coach. Bratkowski's father Zeke, is a former NFL quarterback and current NFL assistant coach. 1/23 Tommy Brasher is named defensive line coach. Brasher has coached nine seasons in the NFL and 12 in college. 1/24 Former Seahawks cornerback Dave Brown (1976-86) returns to the club as a defensive assistant. An original member of the Seahawks, Brown still holds career records with 50 interceptions and four interception return touchdowns. 8/22 Dave Brown becomes the third inductee into the Seahawks Ring of Honor around the 200 Level of the Kingdome. 9/6 Cincinnati Bengals spoil Tom Flores' Seahawks coaching debut with a 21-3 Kingdome win. 9/20 Flores gains first win as Seahawks head coach, 10-6, at New England. Cortez Kennedy has four-and-a-half tackles for loss, including three sacks, to lead the defense while Chris Warren rushes for 122 yards and one score on 24 carries to lead the offense. It's Warren's first career 100-yard game. 11/8 Chris Warren's 103 yards aren't enough as the Washington Redskins post a 16-3 Kingdome win. 11/22 Chris Warren rushes for a career-high 154 yards, including a touchdown, but the Kansas City Chiefs take a 24-14 win. 11/30 In pregame ceremonies, play-by-play broadcaster Pete Gross is inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor. The Seahawks then defeat the Denver Broncos 16-13 in overtime, snapping an eight-game losing streak. Brian Blades makes his first appearance since injuring his shoulder on opening day and catches the game-tying touchdown pass on the game's last play. John Kasay's 32-yard field goal 11:10 into overtime is the winner. The game also marks the team record third straight that the Seahawks defense held the opposition to under 200 total yards 12/2 KIRO Newsradio 710's Pete Gross, the only play-by-play broadcaster in the Seahawks 17-year history, dies after a four-year battle with cancer. 12/6 The Pittsburgh Steelers take a 20-14 comeback win in Pittsburgh, despite Eugene Robinson's record-equalling three interceptions. 12/13 Roger Ruzek's 44-yard field goal as time expires in overtime gives the visiting Philadelphia Eagles a 16-13 win. The game is the longest in Seattle's history. 12/27 Seattle closes out the regular season with a 31-14 Kingdome loss to the AFC West Champion San Diego Chargers. Chris Warren becomes only the second player in franchise history to rush for 1,000 yards, finishing the season with 1,017.

1993 — 1/19 David Behring, son of majority owner Ken Behring, is named team President. Tom Flores is named General Manager/Head Coach, while Player Personnel Director Mike Allman is placed in charge of both professional and college personnel. 1/28 Howard Mudd is named offensive line coach replacing Hudson Houck, who joined the Dallas Cowboys. Mudd is an eight-year NFL veteran guard and a 19-year NFL assistant, including a stint with the Seahawks from 1978-82. 2/5 Phil Neri, a Seahawks scout since 1985, is named College Scouting Director. 3/12 Ferrell Edmunds, two-time Pro Bowl tight end with the Miami Dolphins, signs as an unrestricted free agent. Rookie Rick Mirer passes for 282 yards and a score and also rushes for a touchdown. The three-game winning streak is the Seahawks longest since 1990. 10/24 Rick Mirer throws the game-winning touchdown pass to Brian Blades with 25 seconds left in a 10-9 win over New England in the Kingdome. 11/14 Eugene Robinson records 11 tackles, two interceptions, two forced fumble, and one fumble recovery to spark a 22-5 win over the visiting Cleveland Browns. In all, the Seahawks defense forces seven turnovers and accounts for a touchdown and a safety. 12/26 Chris Warren rushes for 168 yards to become the second Seattle player to have back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons, but the Phoenix Cardinals tie the game on the last play of regulation and go on to a 30-27 overtime win in the Kingdome. 12/26 Jon Vaughn, who learned during warmups that he would start for an injured Chris Warren (abdominal muscle), rushes for a career-high 131 yards in a 16-6 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. Seattle gains 267 yards rushing, giving them back-to-back 200-yard rushing games for the first time in franchise history.

1994 — 1/2 The Seahawks finish the season 6-10 after dropping a 34-24 decision to the AFC West Champion Kansas City Chiefs in Arrowhead Stadium. John L. Williams rushes for 102 yards, to give the Seahawks three straight games with an individual over 100 yards, a franchise first. Rick Mirer becomes the first rookie quarterback since 1973 to start all his team's games and only the third since the 1970 merger. Mirer ends the season with NFL rookie passing records for attempts (486), completions (274), and yards (2,833), while helping to improve Seattle's win total by four games. 2/24 Nate Odomes, two-time Pro Bowl cornerback of the Buffalo Bills signs as a free agent. 2/28 Odomes' Buffalo teammate and fellow two-time Pro Bowler, tackle Howard Ballard signs as a free agent. 4/24 Texas A&M University defensive tackle Sam Adams is the Seahawks first-round draft choice. Adams is the eighth player picked on the first round. 7/19 Kingdome ceiling tiles fall from roof forcing closure of the building until November 5. Seahawks play both preseason games and first three regular season games in the University of Washington's 72,500 seat Husky Stadium. 8/13 Seahawks play first-ever outdoor game in Seattle defeating Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 29-6, in Husky Stadium. 9/4 Seahawks capture season opener for first time since 1988 with a 28-7 win at the Washington Redskins, as Chris Warren rushes for 100 yards and two touchdowns. The win is the 100th in the career of head coach Tom Flores. 9/11 Chris Warren scores two touchdowns for the second straight week as Seahawks go 2-0 with a 38-9 win over the Raiders in Los Angeles. Rick Mirer tosses three touchdown passes. 9/18 San Diego Chargers stop Seahawks two-game winning streak, 24-10, before Seahawks record crowd of 65,536 in Husky Stadium. 9/25 Chris Warren earns AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in a 30-13 win over the visiting Pittsburgh Steelers. Warren rushes for 126 yards and a touchdown, while the Seahawks defense intercepts four passes. 11/6 Cincinnati Bengals spoil Seahawks return to Kingdome with a 20-17 overtime win. Doug Pelfrey kicks six field goals, including a 26-yarder 8:14 into overtime for the win. 11/20 Mack Strong's seven-yard touchdown run with 42 seconds left gives Seahawks a 22-21 win over the visiting Tampa Bay Buccaneers, breaking a six-game losing streak. 11/27 Seahawks defeat Kansas City 10-9 behind John Kasay's 32-yard field goal with 1:42 left. The back-to-back one-point wins are a franchise first. Chris Warren surpasses the 1,000-yard mark in the 12th game, the earliest in team history. 12/11 Chris Warren rushes for a personal best 185 yards on 30 carries, including a touchdown in a 16-14 win at Houston. Warren, playing with cracked ribs, had 183 of his yards in the first three quarters. 12/18 Chris Warren tops 100 yards for the seventh time with 122, but the Los Angeles Raiders escape with a 17-16

Kingdome win. 12/24 Cleveland Browns defeat the Seahawks 35-9 in Cleveland Stadium, closing out a 6-10 season. Chris Warren finishes the season with a franchise record 1,545 rushing yards, a total that leads the AFC. 12/29 Tom Flores, Seahawks general manager/head coach from 1992-94, is relieved of his duties. Flores, who joined the organization in 1989 as president/general manager, compiled a 14-34 regular season record. All 12 of Flores' assistants were also fired.

1995 — 1/12 Dennis Erickson, head coach of the University of Miami, is named head coach. In six seasons at Miami, Erickson compiled a 63-9-0 record and won national championships in 1989 and 1991. A native of Everett, Washington, Erickson posted a 130-40-1 record in 13 seasons as a college head coach at the University of Idaho, University of Wyoming, Washington State University, and Miami. Erickson brings six coaches with him from Miami, Gregg Smith (Assistant Head Coach/Tight Ends), Greg Mc Makin (Defensive Coordinator), Dave Arnold (Special Teams), Dana LeDuc (Strength and Conditioning), Rich Olson (Quarterbacks), and Willy Robinson (Defensive Backs). In addition he retains Bob Bratkowski (Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers), Tommy Brasher (Defensive Line), Tom Catlin (Quality Control), Dave Brown (Defensive Coach), Arnie Matusmoto (Staff Assistant), Howard Mudd (Offensive Line), and Clarence Shelmon (Running Backs) from the previous staff. 2/9 Mike Murphy, a nine-season NFL coaching veteran, is named linebackers coach. Murphy coached with the Detroit Lions and Arizona Cardinals, prior to serving one year in the Pro Personnel Department of the Carolina Panthers. 1/28 Wide Receiver Steve Largent becomes the first Seahawks player to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Largent was elected in his first year of eligibility. He played his entire NFL career with Seattle from 1976-89, and retired in possession of six NFL receiving marks, including most receptions (819), yards (13,089), touchdowns (100), and consecutive games with a reception (177). 4/22 Seahawks select Ohio State University wide receiver Joey Galloway with the eighth pick in the first round of the NFL draft. Galloway is the second wide receiver chosen overall and the first ever picked by the Seahawks on the first round of the draft.

ONE OF A KIND

Chris Warren is the only player in franchise history to have a rushing, receiving, punt return, and kickoff return play of more than 50 yards in their career. Warren's long rush of 52 yards came at the San Diego Chargers in 1992; long punt return of 59 yards (for a touchdown) came against the Indianapolis Colts in 1991; and long kickoff return of 71 yards came at the Denver Broncos in 1990. He added a 51-yard reception at Denver in 1994.

Pro Football Hall of Fame

1995 Steve Largent, WR (elected in first year of eligibilty)

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

HALL OF FAME: Steve Largent became the first Seahawks player to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, January 28, 1995. Largent will be formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, July 29, along with Jim Finks, Henry Jordan, Lee Roy Selmon, and Kellen Winslow. Largent is the 23rd player to be elected in his first year of eligibility.

NFL RECORDS: Concluded his 14 National Football League seasons with league career records for receptions, 819, since broken by Art Monk (934); yards, 13,089, since broken by James Lofton (14,004) and San Francisco's Jerry Rice (13,275); touchdowns, 100, since broken by Rice (131); consecutive games with a reception, 177, since broken by Monk (180); 50-catch seasons, 10, tied by Gary Clark; and 1,000-yard seasons, 8, since broken by Rice (9). Became only the second person in NFL history to have the career lead in receptions, yards, and touchdowns all at the same time joining Green Bay's Don Hutson (1945). Ranked third all-time at the time of his retirement with 40 career 100-yard games, trailing Don Maynard (50) and Lance Alworth (41). Still ranks eighth in total touchdowns with 101 (has one rushing), fifth with 40 100-yard games, and is 12th in combined yards with 13,396.

CAREER: Finished in the AFC's (or NFC's in 1976) top 10 in receptions ten times in his first 12 seasons, failing only in 1977 and 1982, and in the top five seven times. Led the AFC in receptions in 1978 with 71 and finished second in 1981 (75) and 1987 (58), and was third in the NFC in 1976 (54). The only NFC wide receiver to catch more passes than Largent in 1976 was Dallas' Drew Pearson (58). Largent's total did lead all rookie wide receivers. Finished in the NFL's top 10 in receiving yards seven times, including a first place finish in 1985, and a second in 1978, missing the lead by one yard. Missed only 10 games in his career due to injury, including six in 1989 with a broken elbow. Selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game seven times, after the 1978, 1979, 1981, 1984, 1985, 1986, and 1987 seasons. Unable to play in the 1979 game because of a wrist injury. Set the Pro Bowl career yardage record with 236, since surpassed by Jerry Rice with 317, and ranks third in receptions with 17, trailing Walter Payton (18) and Rice (22). Originally drafted on the fourth round in 1976 by the Houston Oilers. Was waived by the Oilers on August 24, recalled, and traded to the Seahawks for an eighth-round 1977 draft choice on August 26. The Oilers used that choice to select wide receiver Steve Davis from the University of Georgia.

SEAHAWKS RECORDS: Led the team in both receptions and yards in each of the team's first 12 seasons. Voted by his teammates as the Seahawks Most Valuable Player after the 1977, 1979, 1981, 1985, and 1987 seasons. Was also elected Offensive Captain from 1979-83 and 1985-89. Played in more games (200) with more starts (197) than any other player in team history.

PERSONAL: Currently represents the 1st District of the State of Oklahoma. Was elected to the United States House of Representatives on November 8, 1994, and sworn in on November 29. Attended Putnam City High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where he lettered in football and baseball. Steve and his wife, Terry, have three sons, Kyle, Kelly, and Kramer, and a daughter, Casie.

NO TIES

Not including the two new expansion teams, the Seahawks are the only team in the history of the NFL not to have played a tie game. The Cincinnati Bengals and Tampa Bay Buccaneers have each played one. The closest Seattle has come to a tie was a 20-17 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles in 1992. The Eagles kicked the game-winning field goal as the gun sounded in overtime. There has not been a tie game played in the regular season since the Cleveland Browns and Kansas City Chiefs tied 10-10 during the 1989 season.

ONLY ONE

The Arizona Cardinals are the only team that the Seahawks have not defeated in the regular season in their 19-year history. Arizona has won all four previous meetings, 30-24 in 1976 in the Kingdome, 33-28 in 1983 in St. Louis, 34-24 in 1989 and 30-27, in overtime, in 1993, both in Seattle. The two teams will meet on October 29 in Arizona in 1995.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER
Running back Chris Warren was voted by his teammates as the Seahawks Most Valuable Player in 1994. Warren set a new team record by rushing for 1,545 yards, a total that led the AFC and was second in the entire NFL. Included was a record-equalling seven 100-yard games, and six straight games with a rushing touchdown. He became only the second player in franchise history to lead the AFC in rushing along with Curt Warner in 1983 and 1986. Warren averaged 4.6 yards per rush and caught a career-best 41 passes. He played in his second Pro Bowl after the season.

NFL LEADER

Quarterback Rick Mirer co-led the NFL in 1994 with an interception-avoidance percentage of 1.8. Mirer, who's percentage tied Kansas City's Joe Montana, threw only seven interceptions in 381 attempts. His percentage is also a franchise record, breaking the old mark of 2.27% by Jim Zorn in 1981.

PRIME TIME

The Seahawks will make one national television appearance in 1995 when they host the Los Angeles Raiders on Sunday, December 17. ESPN will televise the game. The Seahawks and Raiders also met on ESPN in 1994, with Los Angeles taking a 17-16 win. Since their first appearance in 1979, Seattle has posted a 17-8 record in prime time. On ABC's Monday Night Football, Seattle is 11-5; on ESPN 6-1; and 0-2 on TNT. The Raiders are the Seahawks most common prime time opponent, the two teams having played eight times, with the series tied 4-4. Denver and San Diego have been the opposition four times.

OVERTIME SUMMARIES

Denver 20, at Seattle 17 — Sunday, October 29, 1978
The Broncos Jim Turner kicked a second-chance 18-yard field goal 12:59 into overtime for the win. Turner missed an 18-yarder the play before but the Seahawks were penalized for 12 men on the field. Denver's Steve Foley intercepted a pass at the Seattle 36 to set up the drive. The Broncos had three possessions in the overtime and Seattle two.

at Seattle 51, Kansas City 48 — Sunday, November 27, 1983
Norm Johnson's third 42-yard field goal of the day, with 1:46 gone in overtime, gave the Seahawks the win in the highest-scoring game in Seattle history and the third-highest in NFL history. Seattle had the only possession in overtime, driving 24 yards in four plays. Zachary Dixon's 47-yard kickoff return to the Chiefs 48 started the drive, which featured four Curt Warner runs to the Kansas City 24 before Johnson kicked his field goal on third down. Warner established team records with 32 rushes, 207 rushing yards, and scored three touchdowns. Johnson had tied the game with two seconds left in regulation with a 42-yarder.

at Denver 13, Seattle 10 — Sunday, October 20, 1985
Rich Karlis booted a 24-yard field goal 9:19 into overtime for the winner. Each team had three possessions, with the first two ending in punts. Seattle's third drive ended in Daniel Hunter's interception and 20-yard return to the Seahawks 15. Karlis booted his field goal four plays later.

Denver 24, at Seattle 21 — Sunday, October 22, 1989
David Treadwell kicked a 27-yard field goal 7:46 into overtime. Seattle won the toss and drove to the Broncos 22 where Norm Johnson's 40-yard field goal was wide left. After a Denver punt, Denver's Dennis Smith intercepted a Dave Krieg pass on the Seahawks first play and returned it 28 yards to the Seattle 10, where Treadwell kicked a field goal on the next play.

at Denver 34, Seattle 31 — Sunday, September 23, 1990
David Treadwell's 25-yard field goal 9:14 into overtime capped Denver's first overtime possession. Seattle won the toss and drove to the Denver 26 where Norm Johnson's 44-yard field goal was wide right. The Broncos then moved from their own 26 to the Seattle 8 setting up the kick.

Seattle 13, at San Diego 10 — Sunday, November 25, 1990
Norm Johnson's 40-yard field goal came 3:01 into overtime and was set up by Rufus Porter's recovery of a Nesby Glasgow forced fumble at the Chargers 23. The force and recovery came on the Chargers third play of overtime.

at Seattle 13, Houston 10 — Sunday, December 2, 1990
De ja vu. Norm Johnson's 42-yard field goal 4:25 into overtime was set up by David Wyman's recovery of a Tony Woods forced fumble at the Houston 27. The forced and recovery came on the Oilers first play of overtime.

L.A. Raiders 23, at Seattle 20 — Sunday, October 13, 1991
Jeff Jaeger's 37-yard field goal 6:37 into overtime was the winner. After both team's punted on their first possession, Los Angeles' Ronnie Lott intercepted Jeff Kemp at the Seattle 19 and Jaeger kicked the game-winner on the next play. Jaeger had tied the game with one second left with a 49-yard field goal.

at Seattle 16, Denver 13 — Sunday, November 30, 1992
John Kasay redeemed himself with a 32-yard field goal 11:10 into overtime as Seattle snapped an eight-game losing steak. Kasay had missed a 33-yarder on Seattle's second overtime possession. The Seahawks special teams and defense set up the game-winning drive by downing a punt at the Denver 4 and holding the Broncos to no yards on three plays. Seattle drove 24 yards in four plays for the winner. Denver had three possessions and Seattle four.

Philadelphia 20, at Seattle 17 — Sunday, December 13, 1992
Roger Ruzek's 44-yard field goal as the gun sounded ended the longest game in Seattle history (75:00). The Eagles gained 101 yards and controlled the ball for 10:02 on three overtime possessions, while holding the Seahawks to 20 yards on two. For the game, Philadelphia out-gained Seattle 466 yards to 87.

Arizona 30, at Seattle 27 — Sunday, December 19, 1993
Greg Davis kicked a club record and personal best 55-yard field goal on the last play of regulation and added a 41-yarder on the Cardinals only possession of overtime for the win. Davis' 55-yard kick capped a 27-yard, 7-play drive after Seattle took a 27-24 lead on Rick Mirer's one-yard run with 1:22 left. Steve Beuerlein hit 5-of-6 passes on Phoenix's 57-yard, 13-play game-winning drive, the only possession in overtime by either team.

Cincinnati 20, at Seattle 17 — Sunday, November 6, 1994
Doug Pelfrey kicked his Cincinnati record sixth field goal of the game, a 26-yarder 8:14 into overtime, to give the winless Bengals (0-8) their first victory of the season. Pelfrey's kick came one play after quarterback Jeff Blake connected on a 76-yard pass to Darnay Scott to the Seattle 7. Each team had two possessions in the overtime. The game marked the Seahawks first game in the Kingdome, which had been undergoing ceiling tile repairs since mid-July.

PLAYOFF SUMMARIES

at Seattle 31, Denver 7 — Saturday, December 23, 1983
Dave Krieg completed 12-of-13 passes for 200 yards and three touchdowns to pace the win in the AFC Wild Card Game, the first playoff game in team history. Krieg expanded a 10-7 halftime lead with two scoring passes. Rookie running back Curt Warner added 99 yards rushing on 23 carries, while the defense recorded three takeaways and two sacks.

Seattle 27, at Miami 20 — Saturday, December 31, 1983
Curt Warner's two-yard touchdown run with 1:48 left capped a 66-yard, five-play drive and gave the Seahawks a road win over the defending AFC champions. The drive also featured two Dave Krieg-to-Steve Largent completions, for 16 and 40 yards. The latter placed the ball at the Dolphins two. Seattle had led 17-13 with 3:43 left but suffered a turnover to led to Miami's go-ahead score. Seattle answered with their touchdown drive and then added a field goal after Miami fumbled the ensuing kickoff. Another kickoff fumble recovery allowed Seattle to run out the clock. Warner rushed for 113 yards on 29 carries and scored twice. The Seattle defense accounted for five takeaways.

at L.A. Raiders 30, Seattle 14 — Sunday, January 8, 1984
Seattle's Cinderella season ended one game short of the Super Bowl as the Los Angeles Raiders intercepted five passes and limited the Seahawks to 167 total yards. Marcus Allen rushed for 154 yards on 25 carries and Jim Plunkett hit 17-of-24 passes for 214 yards and one touchdown as the Raiders rolled up 401 yards. Frank Hawkins rushed for two touchdowns while Malcolm Barnwell caught five passes for 116 yards.

at Seattle 13, L.A. Raiders 7 — Saturday, December 22, 1984
Dan Doornink rushed for a career-high 126 yards to lead the win over the defending Super Bowl champions. Seattle gained 205 yards rushing and controlled the ball for 34:19, while the defense recorded six sacks and three takeaways. Seattle's only touchdown came on a 26-yard Dave Krieg-to-Daryl Turner pass, while Kenny Easley last-play interception stymied the Raiders. Norm Johnson added 35 and 44 yard field goals.

at Miami 31, Seattle 10 — Saturday, December 29, 1984
Dan Marino, who threw an NFL-record 48 touchdown passes during the regular season, added three against the Seahawks. Marino completed 21-of-34 passes for 262 yards but was picked off twice by John Harris. Marino added to a 14-10 Miami halftime lead with a pair of third quarter touchdown passes. Seattle's only touchdown came on a 56-yard touchdown pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent.

at Houston 23, Seattle 20 (OT) — Sunday, January 3, 1988
Tony Zendejas kicked a 42-yard field goal 8:05 into overtime. Seattle tied the game with 26 seconds left on a 12-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent, capping a 10-play, 80-yard drive. Houston held a 437-to-250 total yard and 47:44-to-20:21 time of possession advantages. Seattle played without leading rusher Curt Warner (ankle).

at Cincinnati 21, Seattle 13 — Saturday, December 31, 1988
The Bengals jumped to a 21-0 lead and held off the Seahawks in a clash between divisional winners. Cincinnati rushed for 254 yards, including 126 and a touchdown by rookie Icky Woods, and held Seattle to 13 yards. Stanley Wilson rushed for two scores. Seattle's John L. Williams caught 13 passes for 137 yards and a score, the third-best reception total in NFL history.

COACH HAWK

Since his inception in 1990, Coach Hawk, the mascot for the Seahawks anti-drug campaign, has visited over 140 schools and community activities around the state of Washington, enrolling over 30,000 children in the Hawk Club.

Coach Hawk stands for being a good child, doing the right thing, making the right choices and keeping a healthy mind and body. It's the Seahawks effort to educate young people about the ills of drug use.

The program is two-fold, featuring an activity/coloring book that is sent to all first graders. Each book contains a card to be filled out by the child, enrolling them in the Hawk Club. Each member receives a membership card signed by Coach Hawk, posters, pens, and decals.

The program was conceived by Seahawks minority owner Ken Hofmann with the cooperation of Judith Billings, Washington State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

For more information on the Hawk Club, contact Sarita Carter at the Seahawks Headquarters, (206) 827-9777.
